BURNING CAR — One occupant of this automobile suffered first to third degree burns over 75 per cent of her body after accident northbound in fog on Junipero Serra freeway near Serramonte early Monday. Mrs. Hazel Hudson was in "very guarded" condition after admission to Mary's Help Hospital, Daly City. Also injured were James Hudson, treated at Mary's Help for facial laceration, and an unidentified third man, who said he would seek treatment at Kaiser Hospital. Gas tank of 1960 four-door auto was punctured in rear-end collision. Car was completely involved when Daly City fire company arrived.

'No Recall' Movement

New Twist in San Bruno Issue

(Another Photo, Page 2)

Something new has been added to the aSn Bruno recall movement. It's a "No Recall" movement.

This group recently opened headquarters at 482 West San Bruno Avenue, headed by John Barnard and Steve Pardini.

"We are calling on all responsible citizens to get involved, learn the facts, and find out who is behind the attempt to recall Mayor Neil Christal, Vice-Mayor Ted Long and Councilman Dick Griffith," said a press release issued Monday.

The pair is asking what (if any) is the motivation to spend "approximately $12,000 for a special election after the voters of San Bruno just elected two of the three councilmen to office and re-elected Christal for his third term."

Recall publicist Larry Mobley refuted the $12,000 figure, saying the city had budgeted $7,500 for the election this past April.

City Clerk Carl Hultberg confirmed this and said the cost to the city for the April election was $6,800.

"We're addressing ourselves to one issue, the manner in which they (Christal, Long and Griffith) appointed the city manager," said Mobley. "They don't defend that issue. Instead they bring up numerous side issues."

Mobley said his group was not going to get into a battle of issues, but they were concerned with the election cost quote of $12,000.

They question whether it is just coincidence that, "the apparent supporters of the recall movement," have also been active in past campaigns for Councilmen George Corey and Maurice Hamilton and former-councilman Karney Barberian.

"Where is the money coming from for the fancy borchure recently mailed to San Bruno residents at high cost?" asks the release. "Are the recall promoters trying to get another election started at great cost to the taxpayers after just putting us to an unnecessary expense of over $1,300 to defend the appointment of our city manager? Are the recall promotors not satisfied that the voters of San Bruno really want their votes to count?"

According to Barnard and Pardini the three up for recall "are making a determined effort to control the problems of dirt haul; they want to work with the airport officials to lower jet noise; improve the quality of business and apartment buildings which will be built in the future; and to withstand the pressures for unsightly developments which face the city.

"Add to this the effort being initiated by the City of San Francisco to build rapid transit storage facilities somewhere in San Bruno and we feel the citizens of San Bruno need the strength of the three councilmen we elected in April of this year," said the release.

NO RECALL headquarters is the first sign of any faction in the City of San Bruno fighting to retain the three councilmen whose political careers are presently in jeopardy. The headquarters is located at 482 West San Bruno Avenue. It was opened by John Barnard and Steve Pardini.

Jet Noise: Hearing Tests at SSF Schools Suggested

By BOB PETERSON

South San Francisco Councilman Frank Mammini is looking to the city's schools as a possible means of fighting what he considers unbearable jet noise over the city.

Mammini Monday night said he would contact the schools regarding hearing tests given children. The purpose is to compare the hearing of these children with hearing of similar-age-level children who attend school in areas not affected by jet noise.

Teaching in South San Francisco's schools is regularly interrupted during take-offs of jet planes over the city, it was pointed out.

The suggestion to work with the schools on hearing problems connected with jet noise was offered by developer Hank Richman. He thought possibly the county health department could make a study of the children's hearing.

"Start a file on this thing," said Richman. "Our children's hearing is being damaged and we want it stopped." It was pointed out after Richman's suggestion that the school already takes hearing tests of the students. Richman, however, emphasized that it is necessary to compare these findings with children who do not have to share their class time with overhead jets.

Mammini started the discussion by noting the recent state legislation on noise levels for jets, calling it a "disastrous piece of legislation."

He interpreted the legislation to mean that "for 15 more years jet noise in and around the cities will be exactly what you have right now."

"We start from here," said Noonan. "From this point, by amendments, hearings and variances control can be brought about, especially if every state does the same thing.

Noonan said he has always contended that the school district is the biggest single property owner with provable damages in loss of attention time and effects on hearing and the nervous system.

Resident Henry Rogers said "it isn't practical to sit back and wait for the federal government to do something." The airlines are laughing at you sitting and waiting for the government to take any action," said Rogers.

Another resident, Robert Volosing, who said he has worked more than 20 years for a major airline, said he speaks in a loud tone when he comes home from work. "This is a natural result of working with jets," he said.

"There is no better way of fighting the noise, than to make your own noise," said Volosing. "Laws are time consuming and often a corridor for legislators and big business to delay and circumvent the intent of these laws.

"Big business doesn't want to be bothered if they can help it, unless they are forced into it. When certain big interests tell you not to worry because they will do something, tell them baloney, we know otherwise. Little is being done. They willl do nothing unless they meet resistence

Housing Committee Might Be Formed by Daly City Council

A seven member Housing Committee may soon be set up in Daly City to assist that city in planning its housing needs it was disclosed Monday.

Both councilmen Anthony Giamonna and Frank Pacelli said during a study session that they were leaning towards establishment of some sort of housing advisory committee.

And while Pacelli felt five committee members would be sufficient, others, including local senior citizens' vice president Julius Castellan and civic leader Larry Freiberg felt seven members would be more suitable.

Freiberg explained that illness and lack of interest on the part of some persons might cause absences at meetings.

It was further suggested that the members be selected by the city council. They would be those people directly concerned with housing needs and problems within the area.

Because of the structure of government agencies dealing with such committees, the local committee would have to channel its requests for funding and other federal aid through the already-established San Mateo County Housing Authority.

Freiberg said the committee should work under the Planning Commission, since the Planning Commission and the City Planning Department would be better able to assist them.

Earlier, the council heard from representatives of the Wilsey & Ham engineering firm regarding improvement of Knowles Avenue which would include relocation of some 47 homes — mostly in the low income class.

The firm was contracted some three months ago by the city to come up with a plan to improve traffic flow and safety along Knowles Avenue between Mission Street and Junipero Serra Boulevard.

With the completion of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District station on Knowles, traffic volume will be generated and unless certain "bottlenecks" are removed this traffic will jam at peak commuting hours, Frank Finy ,a spokesman for the firm, said.

The firm presented the council with four interchangeable plans affecting the street — each involving removal of a number of private homes along the route.

Mayor Bernard J. Lycett noted that questions raised concerning relocation of these people, and future development of the area, might be undertaken

81 Percent Response in Recall Drive

Mrs. John Ford, coordinator of the San Bruno Recall Committee, announced yesterday that over 81 percent of the necessary 4,000 signatures needed to recall three City Council have been obtained.

Mrs. Ford said the committee plans to wrap up the campaign this week, even though it has 60 days in which to gain signatures of 25 percent of the voters in San Bruno.

Larry Mobley, a spokesman for the recall group, acknowledged counter-action by Councilmen Richard Griffith, Theodore Long and Neil Christal.

But, Mobley said:

"They're having a hard time finding workers, since a large number of citizens who supported and worked for them during the election campaigns publicly have acknowledged their error in judgment and now are out carrying recall petitions."

The recall movement stemmed from the manner in which Christopher (Kit) Menkin was selected as city manager of the city of 37,000 persons.

There are 16,000 registered voters, according to Orville Wycoff, chairman of the Recall Committee.

"I don't know of any issue in the past having such community-wide support as this campaign," Wycoff said.

POST DEADLINE ADVANCED

Today is the deadline for submission of articles intended for publication in next week's Post, which will be delivered Thanksgiving morning.

Police Quell S.S.F. Clash Following Football Game

Police units from throughout San Mateo County were called out on Friday to help quell a brawl involving an estimated 3,000 youths after a South San Francisco high school football game.

Several Sheriff's Deputies narrowly escaped serious injury as a speeding car allegedly tried to run them down as they marched back to their staging area at the conclusion of the incident.

South San Francisco police chief Sal Rosano said, "Both the officers and myself have praise for the overwhelming majority of students from both schools who were co-operative and didn't cause any difficulty."

Some 71 officers and four police dogs from Pacifica, Brisbane, Daly City, San Bruno, Broadmoor, California Highway Patrol, and County Sheriff's Department rushed to the aid of South San Francisco police at the height of the melee at 9 p.m.

Four arrests were made and several persons suffered minor injuries in the fracas which erupted at the South San Francisco High School football stadium during a game between S.S.F. and El Camino High Schools.

Only slight property damage resulted from the incident, police said.

An overflow crowd of some 9,000 persons turned out to watch the game which would determine the league champions.

At the halftime, with the score tied at 0-0, several minor fistfights broke out between spectators, police said.

An urgent call for assistance went out to all local law enforcement agencies as the fights began to shape into a full-scale

Police Building Study in S.S.F.

A study of the present South San Francisco police building was authorized Monday by the council to see whether it could be expanded, rather than having a new facility built.

The matter of a new police facility has been in limbo ever since the council appointed a capital improvements committee to make recommendations, then ignored their recommendations.

The method in which the study came about was less than orthodox.

Resident Dick Battaglia said that a special meeting was held on October 29 at the First Assembly of God Church. The meeting was called by the Rev. C. E. Curtright, chairman of the public safety subcommittee of the capital improvement committee.

According to Battaglia, also present at the meeting were Councilmen William Borba and Frank Bertucelli. At that time Councilman Bertucelli produced "beautiful colored drawings of the actual expansion of the present facility."

Battaglia said no one from the city staff was present at the meeting, nor did they know of the drawings. Neither were two other councilmen — Frank Mammini and Warren Steinkamp—told of the meeting, nor aware of the drawings.

Mayor Patrick Ahern, several meetings back, said it was his

How Many Parents in JESD?

Adminstrator Won't Tell Petition-Circulating Women

By WILL THOMAS

Some petition-circulating parents want to know how many parents there are in the Jefferson Elementary School District, but Supt. Frank L. Greenwood won't tell them.

Mrs. Tom Kilpatrick says she wants the names so she and other parents who live in the Daly City-Colma district could complete circulation of a petition to the state's General Services Division.

The petition asks the state, Mrs. Kilpatrick says, to inspect Benjamin Franklin Intermediate School. The safety of a seven-room wing there has been questioned by Mrs. Kilpatrick and other residents.

They say the petitions must represent a percentage of the total number of parents in the district. Until they learn how many parents there actually are, they will not know how many names to obtain on the petitions, the women have explained.

Greenwood has balked at giving the number until the district attorney's office decrees that he must.

He says he has insufficient help to compile the information readily.

Greenwood and most trustees do not share the concern that Mrs. Kilpatrick, Mrs. Beverly Forrester, Trustee Dorothy Adams and a few others have expressed for several months.

The issue stems from construction — unauthorized by either the state or the local board, the women charge — of a warehouse beneath, and onto, the overhanging classroom wing in 1968.

The women contend the construction of the warehouse, mostly by district workmen, and the storage of furniture, could cause stress to a wing that has had a problem of dry-rot and window separation (1966-68).

Repairs were made and the buildings declared safe.

Greenwood relies currently on his interpretation of architectural-engineering survey reports to support his own contention that the wing is structurally safe.

A November 4 report from G. A. Sedgwick & Associates indicated the warehouse floor is generally independently supported and adds "very little load to the original building foundation."

The load capacity of the floor is "limited by the capacity of the weaker members—26 pounds per square foot," the report stated.

"At the time of our inspection

Problems of SF Airport Access Told

By FRANK LaPIERRE

A new San Francisco Airport Access Project report points up several crucial issues facing the proposed transit link between Daly City and International Airport but falls short of providing any positive answers.

The 48 page report covers five major issues, including a selection of routings into the terminal building complex and finances. It represents facts gathered to date by the Access Study Team since its inception some four months ago.

Few of the proposals offered are new.

Most are a rehash of previous suggestions on how to get people from the Bay Area Rapid Transit District terminus station Daly City to the Airport in a battle between team supporters.

"Football fever was running high at this point in the game," an officer said.

Two arrested for assaulting a police officer and resisting arrest were made as South San Francisco police tried to break up a fistfight at the midway point in the game.

According to police the crowd began getting unruly following the arrests of Milton W. Jones 19, of 210 Holly Street, and Antonio P. Cervantes, 18, of 372 "C" Street, both of South San Francisco.

It was at this time that police decided to ask for mutual aid from surrounding departments.

Restaurants — especially those catering to youths — were asked to close their doors early in anticipation of postgame trouble.

Police said 1,000 youths packed some of the more popular drive-in restaurants along the El Camino Real near the stadium, but tight police surveillance kept the crowds under control.

The most serious postgame incident occurred on Spruce Avenue as a single file column of 13 sheriff deputies marched back to their cars.

A car driven by Terrel J. Shaddox, 19, of 739 Grand Avenue, South San Francisco, allegedly tried to cut down the marching lawmen, missing Deputy E. L. Pronske and his police dog, Iro, by about six inches.

Sheriff's Sgt. William Sweeney jumped clear as the car brushed past him, clipping a gas mask tied on his hip.

Another deputy, Michael Dow, likewise escaped being run down by the car, police said.

Sergeant Dow shouted over his "bullhorn" speaker for other units to stop the car and a Brisbane patrol car succeeded in blocking the supect car's flight.

Shaddox and passenger Ernest D. Zarete, of 661 Baden Avenue, South San Francisco, were arrested and charged with resisting arrest.

Shaddox was also charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

Problems Told Airport Access

minimum of time with a minimum of trouble.

Actually the report, prepared by Wilbur Smith along with Kirker, Chapman & Associates, merely brings together fragmentary studies made over the years by the now-defunct Westbay Rapid Transit Authority, San Francisco Public Utilities Commission, Airport engineers and BART itself.

It is, however, considered the first comprehensive report offered by the team, composed of representatives from San Francisco and San Mateo counties, BART and several Peninsula cities.

As has been explained in one report or another on the subject of routing into the main airport complex, there are nine variations of how a train might be routed from Daly City. Each has its own problems connected with it, problems that must eventually be solved.

In earlier talks on the subject, BART general manager W. R. Stokes made it clear he desired to plan the airport link around a system that could be extended south from the airport.

Some suggestions have included a stub-end line that would terminate at the airport, while yet another thought is to have a "regular" station with a separate means of transporting people from the station—perhaps in San Bruno—to the airport.

Most officials favor a plan whereby some trains would swing into the terminal complex and continue on to either San Francisco via Daly City or southward toward San Jose.

It was further indicated in the report that while the issues may be described separately, they are in fact intertwined and must be dealt with as such.

Even financial and administration phases of the extension would have an impact on route and station locations.

Only San Francisco has shown clear-cut evidence it is ready to assume a large financial role in the matter.

Talks on committing some $1 million for extra supports at the main terminal building now under construction at the airport in order to strengthen the structure to facilitate BARTD trains are under way.

Indication are that the San Francisco PUC and airport officials favor the expenditure if the system is to be routed into the upper levels of the new building.

South San Francisco and San Bruno—adopted stands regarding the extension even before the study had gotten under way.

As an example, South San Francisco is standing fast in its demand that any line through that city be underground, while San Bruno recently revealed they will insist a station be located along the El Camino Real.

Daly City has included in its General Plan a second station at San Pedro Avenue near the Alec shopping Center.

Southern Pacific Company, owners of a substantial length of right-of-way beteen Daly City and points south, has indicated it is receptive to discussions on the extension, the report said.

Most logical routing, at present, would be along the SP right-of-way for a distance, across some one-fourth of a mile of private lands to the old No. 30 trolley line to an area adjacent to International Airport where the line would be built on San Francisco-owned property.

Housing Unit Might Be Formed in DC

by the proposed Housing Committee.

One citizen at the session meeting, Albert Jenkin, said he feared if costs of the project were extreme some people in the area "will be taxed out of the area before they can take advantage of this development."

"Jenkins was referring to overall redevelopment and general upgrading of the neighborhood in the vicinity of the Bay Area Rapid Transit station.

According to Public Works Director David Macabee the funds for improving Knowles — perhaps as much as $800,000—will come from gas tax monies from the State and not local funds.

Several persons at the meeting felt an overall redevelopment plan should be explored before going into the Knowles project.

City manager David Gowe, however, explained that the city would stand to lose considerable State financial aid if it shelved the Knowles project at this time.

Church Notes

The First Baptist Church, 542 Lisbon Street, Daly City, will conduct special meetings November 22-25, featuring the Rev. Jerry Brandt, field evangelist for Baptist Bible College of Denver.

"We Maketh Intercession" will be Pastor David Donnelly's 10:55 a.m. sermon topic Sunday at the Westside Baptist Church, 390 Inverness Drive, Pacifica.

The United Methodist Churches of San Bruno and St. Paul's and Aldersgate of South San Francisco are making plans for the annual union Thanksgiving services, to be held at 8 p.m., November 24 at St. Paul's, 500 Miller Avenue.

El Camino Band Film

A film depicting the recent El Camino High School Band tour of Europe will be shown at the November 25 luncheon of the South San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

The meeting will be held at the Royal Inn, 275 South Airport Blvd.

YES RECALL — These are some of the more than 100 San Brunans carrying petitions to registered voters in an effort to recall Mayor Neil Christal and Councilmen Ted Long and Dick Griffith. The recall effort grew out of public indignation over the manner in which City Manager Christopher (Kit) Menkin was appointed. Twenty-five per cent of the registered voters in the last general election are needed to place the matter on a special election ballot, expected next February. Story, Page 1. (Staggs Photo)

Jet Noise: Hearing Tests in S.S.F. Schools Urged

from local people and the council."

Mammini cited a Russian study of jet noise in which a clinical exam was made of 9-to-13-year-olds. He said it was determined that the children were found to have reduced auditory capacity, among other nervous, blood pressure and related problems.

"We have seven schools in the jet path, said Mammini. He said the legislation has given the airports more latitude than they originally had. "They (legislators) probably went to the airlines and asked how long it will take to retrofit the engines. They protect the airlines right down the middle.

"There is only one way to fight this thing," said Mammini, and that's with class action suits — not one, but many. The only way to get action is when they realize money is coming out of their pockets." Mammini is a claimant in preliminary action leading to a class action suit.

City Attorney John Noonan said, "I have faith in this (legislative) act."

Noonan, without being against class action suits, has been a strong advocate of regulatory measures to fight the jet noise.

"It is no immediate solution," said Noonan, "but that act will be one of the most significant acts in noise control in the United States."

Noonan said the legislation was equivalent to the beginnings of the Bay Conservation Development Commission. "What California has done is to start a movement that will spread nationwide and cause adequate noise control at the federal level where it belongs," said Noonan.

The city attorney said the legislation had to be expressed in what airlines could consider a reasonable standard. If not, according to Noonan, the airlines could say, "This on its face is unreasonable."

actual loads on the floor varied from less than 10 pounds per square foot to a maximum of about 26 pounds per square foot," according to G. A. Sedgwick in a report to McSweeney and Schuppel, the district's architects.

However, the report indicated the floor construction had "no positive system of earthquake bracing."

The trustees have voted to correct this, at an estimated cost of $5000.

A sum for installation of a fire sprinkler system mandated by the area fire marshal has been committed by the trustees. The fire marshal's office still is studying the Gigli Plumbing Company's design, according to Greenwood.

Greenwood says the district spent about $6600 on the warehouse initially, although the women say it was closer to $8000.

Greenwood said last week that matter should be taken up with vacationing Associate Supt. Roger Barthuli.

Trustee Bill Schumacher has sided with the women in rapping the warehouse. However, his opposition has been to storage of new, intermediate-age size furniture. He believes the furniture should be in the classroom.

Greenwood says the district needs the storage space; it's the cheapest to be found, he says.

FDR's Drug Abuse Program

The Franklin D. Roosevelt drug abuse committee will present a public program Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the Daly City school's multi-use room.

The topic will be "Why Are Some Kids Turning to Drugs?"

Guest speakers will include a representative from the medical profession: Ralph Rutley, of the Pacific Youth Service Bureau; Jim Musselwhite, student body president of Westmoor High school; and representatives of the Daly City police department and the North County Mental Health.

intention to talk with the local firm of Kirker Chapman and Associates, civil engineers, about the feasibility of expanding the present facility.

The mayor at that time said he was going to poll the councilmen individually for their concurrence on this matter.

Councilman Bertucelli, however, stressed that the drawings he had were made by Kirker Chapman on his personal request, and were done at no expense to the city. The councilman added that it was his intention to give the drawings to the city. He then went to his home to retrieve the drawings and spent nearly an hour showing them to the audience.

Battaglia, a member of the public safety subcommittee, reminded the councilmen that the firm of Wilson, Jones, Morton and Lynch, who is retained by the city in many bonding related matters, has offered to do a feasibility study to include the entire city—free.

"Why hasn't the council taken them up on it?" asked Battaglia. "It is an insult to the people who have served on this committee that nothing has been done. Why are you sitting on your duff?"

Battaglia responded by saying this point had a verbal showdown with Battaglia talking rapidly and the mayor attempting to interject his position in the matter. "You're always interrupting," said Battaglia.

"Do you have any objections on trying to save the city $1 million dollars?" asked Ahern.

Battaglia responded by saying the committee at the October 29 meeting was told expansion of the present facility would save the city a million dollars. "How do you know that without a feasibility study?" asked Battaglia.

The mayor said that is the amount that would be saved in land purchase for a new facility. He was quickly corrected by a member of the audience who said land was estimated at only about $80,000 an acre, or at the most a total of $300,000.

Colma PTA Fund Drive

As the membership campaign of the Colma Intermediate School Parent Teachers Association draws to a close, P-TA president Mrs. Michael Pleich has stressed the need for more $1 memberships.

She said there are 850 students attending the school and approximately 70 parents have given the $1 membership fee to the P-TA.

Pacificans Held Captive by Gunmen

A Pacifica housewife and her three small children were held captive by a pair of armed robbers in their Vallemar home for more than an hour Friday.

The gunmen fled after ransacking the home and stealing some $16 in cash and a .41 caliber revolver. They did not harm their victims, police said.

Mrs. Josephine Cunningham said the men forced their way into her home at 241 Hillside Drive shortly after 3 p.m. through a kitchen door that led to the basement of the house.

She was feeding her daughter, Cathy, and son, Freddy, in the living room when the men, wearing stocking masks pulled over their faces, burst into the room.

The pair shoved Mrs. Cunningham into a bedroom and taped her hands behind her back and also taped her feet together. Both children were bound in the same manner.

One of the suspects warned, "if you try to get free I'll shoot you."

Mrs. Cunningham's son, Julien, was grabbed when he returned from school about 3:40 p.m. and forced into the bedroom with his mother, sister and brother.

Some 30 minutes after the men left, Julien managed to free himself and call police.

Student Arrested in Big LSD Haul

A 20-year-old student from Tampa, Fla., was arrested on a charge of possessing an estimated 80,000 LSD tablets after two U.S. Marshals stopped him as he was boarding a United Airline flight to New York last Friday.

A metal detector had showed his attache case contained some metal.

Marshals Wilbert A. Brown, 51, and Jeffrey F. Ward, 27, reported to deputy sheriffs that Thomas Louis Treeza answered the profile description of possible airline highjack suspect put out to all U.S. Marshals checking airline passengers.

The marshals said when Treeza was passing through Gate 24 at the Central Terminal he was carrying an attache case and a contraband detector flashed red.

When Brown and Ward asked Treeza to open his case, they reported he replied, "No guns or bombs in the case. I don't know what you want to look for."

Pressed, Treeza told the federal agents that a man "gave it to me and gave me $100 to carry it on the flight."

Taken to the sheriff's station at the airport, Deputy Robert Cancilla asked Treeza if he could open the case.

"Go ahead. I don't know what's in there," the suspect replied. Authorities forced open the case with a screwdriver and found 80 plastic bags each containing 1,000 green tablets.

Cancilla reported two plastic bags containing marijuana were found in Treeza's jean's pocket. If the tablets are LSD, Lieut. Nino LoSchiavo said they could be worth as much as $320,000 on the black market.

Marijuana Confiscated in Daly City

Three persons were arrested in Daly City on Friday and some 2,000 marijuana cigarettes confiscated as a result of a suspicious U.S. Customs officer.

The unidentified Customs inspector becamee suspicious of a package being mailed to a Daly City address from a serviceman stationed in Vietnam and decided to check its contents.

Inside the package were the cigarettes and a small amount of has-hish.

Police valued the marijuana at more than $3,000.

Arrested at his home at 241 Morton Drive, about 2:15 p.m. was Garry Kent, 26, his 17-year-old sister, and Joseph Tucker, 27, of Hawthorne, Calif.

Police did not identify the sender of the package pending further investigation.

All three were charged with possession of marijuana. Kent was additionally charged with possession of dangerous drugs, police said.

Capuchino Band Wins

Capuchino High School's Marching Band came home from Merced with three new trophies to add to their collection. The band competed against 50 other high school bands in the eleventh annual Central California Band Revue.

A first-place trophy went to Becky Heuton for performing as solo twirling majorette. Jim Harrington, the drum major, won a third-place trophy for his outstanding performance in leading the band. The Capuchino band, under the direction of Owen Fleming and assisted by Harry Spencer, won second place in their classification. The winner also received an individual gold medal besides the gold trophy.

Police Press 40-Hour Week

South San Francisco police had another go-round with Mayor Patrick Ahern Wednesday in an effort to seek a 40-hour work week.

Sgt. Jules Koefoed, representing the police wage committee, told the mayor that after the matter of 40 hours has been settled, the police would be happy to discuss "any remaining issues." The major question remaining unanswered is whether parity does or should exist between police and firemen.

Mayor Ahern, however, felt the parties should get together and solve all their differences at one time. He suggested that Koefoed report back to his group, then meet with Acting City Manager Larry Ross and see if this couldn't be done. Koefoed agreed to meet with Ross.

Councilman Frank Mammini had pointed out that the 40-hour work was not a negotiable item. "They are entitled to it by law," said Mammini.

City attorney John Noonan agreed, saying the negotiable thing is how it is implemented, by paying overtime or hiring extra personnel.

Police Chief Sal Rosano had prepared a breakdown of needs to implement a working 40-hour work week. He said it would be less expensive to the city to hire additional personnel than to pay overtime salaries. Police presently work 42½ hours.

According to the chief, estimated cost of three more personnel—one sergeant and two officers—would be approximately $15,000 for the remainder of this fiscal year.

Claim for Damages, Injuries charges Negligence at S.F. Airport

A claim for property damages and personal injuries in the amount of $585,000 has been filed against the city and county of San Francisco by 32 residents of South San Francisco for alleged negligent operation of San Francisco International Airport.

According to a brief filed by attorneys Joseph W. Cotchett of San Mateo and David J. Friedenberg of Daly City, damages are the result of the operation of jet aircraft from the airport.

"The damages arise out of the negligent operation of San Francisco International Airport and the taking of the claimants' property without just compensation in violation of the Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States," says the brief, which was mailed to San Francisco yesterday.

The claim states that the names of public employes causing the damages are unknown at this time. The personal injuries sustained, according to the claim, are to the respiratory system, eyes, ears, noses and throats of the claimants.

According to the claim, total medical expenses also are unknown. However, it was estimated these expenses would exceed $5,000 for each individual claimant.

The damage to property also remains unknown at this point. The claim says it consists of lowering the value of real estate due to low flying aircraft, and the physical impact upon real property of vibrations from jet noise and waste materials from jet emissions.

The claim estimates value of the amount of damage caused by the operation at $10,000 per household.

Of the 32 residents filing the claim several are prominent citizens, including Councilmen Frank Mammino and Warren Steinkamp, Planning Commissioner Gordon Boblitt, former City Manager Tom McKenzie and unsuccessful council candidate Ed Toby.

Youths Beat Elderly Man

Two teen-aged youths pistol whipped and robbed an elderly San Francisco man on a Daly City street about 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Pillip Luzzi, 67, was taken to Mary's Help Hospital after the attack near the Cow Palace on Geneva Avenue and treated for multiple lacerations of the head.

Bruno Seeks Park Site

San Bruno councilmen have authorized the city manager to make an application to the state for excess property near the 380-280 interstate interchange.

The property will be given to the city for its development and use as a recreational area. It is a 2.7 acre plot. The state also will provide $50,000 in landscaping funds and allow the city five years free maintenance cost of the area.

Golfer's Campaign Backed

The year-long, one-man campaign of a Daly City golf enthusiast to achieve more public golf courses on the Peninsula has found a receptive ear at the county level. And he may get action.

County Parks and Recreation Director Ralph Shaw now says San Mateo County is interested in entering into a joint venture agreement for development and operation of three additional courses to be built on the San Francisco Water Department watershed lands in the Crystal Springs Lakes area.

For the past year Richard Miyashiro, an ardent golfer boasting a 16 handicap, has been knocking on neighbors' doors seeking support in his battle to get more golf courses for County citizens.

Miyashiro took up his fight shortly after San Francisco raised the cost of playing golf to non-residents of that city-county.

The cost increase applied to all S.F. muni courses, including Sharp's Park located in Pacifica.

Miyashiro appeared several times before the Daly City council armed with petitions.

Mayor Bernard J. Lycett, himself a golfer, encouraged a committee be set up by Miyashiro to meet with city recreation and parks commissioners.

Following an October meeting between Miyashiro's committee and the Commission, a letter was sent to Ralph Shaw, director of San Mateo County Parks & Recreation, asking whether the lands are available in the county for golf course construction, plus future plans of San Francisco as regards the Peninsula watershed development.

Shaw answered that planners had recommended three more courses be built in the area for general use of the public.

Through the firm of Wilsey & Ham, planners for the watershed area, the San Mateo County Recreation and Parks Department had the opportunity of assisting in the overall planning of the large undeveloped area, Shaw said.

"The key to our thinking in this regard is the need for additional golf courses," Shaw explained.

Shaw said San Mateo County is interested in a joint venture, providing the operation is on a first-come first-serve basis for all golfers.

San Mateo County itself has no useable land available for golf course development, Shaw noted.

THE LARGEST AND FINEST PATIO SELECTION IN THE BAY AREA

"SMART TEENS" — Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage addresses members of the Daly City-Colma Smart Teens Club on drugs. Club's advisor is Mrs. Ruth Galindo, who explained that the group meets on the second and fourth Tuesdays at Broadmoor Community Center. Its goal, she pointed out, is to "prevent the abuse of drugs." With 21 members, and more welcome, William S. Thomas, right, of Westmoor is president and Tim Luther (left of Chief Savage) of Benjamin Franklin Intermediate is vice-president. Jefferson and Serramonte High Schools, as well as Colma Intermediate also are represented. (Post Photo.)

Hybridizing the 'Wright Way'

Hybridizing the Wright Way, by John F. Wright of Hillsborough, and the Technique of Planting Bare Root Roses, by Don F. Marshall of San Mateo, will be the subjects at the 8 p.m. Thursday meeting of the San Mateo County Rose Society Inc. at Baywood School, 600 Alameda de las Pulgas, San Mateo.

Wright, an amateur hybridizer, will explain in layman's language how to hybridize your own roses, cross pollinating and budding.

Marshall, past president of the San Mateo County Rose Society, an accredited rose judge, and consulting rosarian, will speak on the planting of bare root roses.

Friday Dance

The Know Names Junior Teen Club is to hold a dance at Ben Franklin School on Friday. Live music will be provided and the dance will begin at 7 p.m. and conclude at 9:30 p.m.

Westlake's Annual Dinner Saturday

"Steppin' In Society" will be the theme Saturday evening when Westlake Shopping Center merchants, their wives and guests gather at Millbrae's Thunderbolt Hotel and the shopping center's sixth annual Big Game Night — Winter Dinner Dance.

Sal Carson and his Society Recording Orchestra, featuring Sylvia Gaylord, will play the fashionable gala.

More than 200 merchants and distinguished guests will be present. Among the guests will be Daly City Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lycett, Councilmen Frank Pacelli, Police Chief Roland Petrocchi, Fire Chief Herbert Ritzman, City Clerk Mrs. Elmer Ohlendorf, Edward King, vice president and general manager of the Henry Doelger organization, and James H. Trevor, managing owner of Westlake Shopping Center.

A courtesy cocktail hour will open the fetivities at 7 o'clock, followed by dinner and dancing at eight.

The gathering is informal and by invitation only.

Joseph Franzoia Claims Bride in Mateo Ceremony

Living in the Bay Area after their recent marriage at St. Timothy's Catholic Church in San Mateo are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph John Franzoia III (Diane Marie Belli).

Rev. Paul M. Isaacs officiated at the service for the daughter of the Ernest L. Bellis of Salinas and the son of the senior Joseph Franzoias of South San Francisco.

A floor length A-line white satin organza gown was worn by the bride when she recited her vows. A graduate of Gonzales High School, Diane earned her nursing degree at St. Joseph's School of Nursing in San Francisco.

Honor attendant for the bride was Nancy Moranda of Soledad, her cousin, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Allen Forrest of Altus, Okla., another cousin of the bride, and Margot Clark of Soledad. They wore floor length gold crepe Empire gowns with short bouffant sleeves.

Michael McCullough was best man and ushers included Joseph Scheutzow of Santa Cruz and Andrew Colletfa of South San Francisco.

The Beresford Recreation Hall in San Mateo was the reception locale. After greeting guests, the couple left for a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination.

Joseph, who is employed in the San Mateo County sheriff's office, was graduated from South San Francisco High School and the College of San Mateo.

3-County YW Session Is Planned

San Francisco YWCA members and friends in San Francisco, Marin, and San Mateo counties, will celebrate YWCA World Fellowship and observe the 25th anniversary of the founding of the United Nations, with a luncheon and program at the 620 Sutter Street YWCA, November 23.

Lunch will be followed by a panel discussion of overseas work by both the YWCA and UNICEF in behalf of women, youth, and children. Theme will be: "World fellowship builds world peace."

YWCA's World Fellowship fund, which operates in more than 40 countries, located in Africa, Asia, Europe, Latin-America, the Middle East, Caribbean, and South Pacific, aids programs in the areas of health, literacy, job preparation, and recreation for young people and children.

Luncheon guests have been invited to take an inexpensive, treasured gift from another part of the world to share. Gifts will be sold at $1 each, with proceeds donated to the World Fellowship fund.

Holiday Bake Sale by CDA Unit in D.C.

Court St. Mary No. 1155, Catholic Daughters of America, will hold its holiday cake, candy and gift sale November 22, starting after the 8 a.m. mass at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church in Daly City.

Special features of the sale will be homemade candy, toys and Christmas decorations.

Proceeds from this sale, according to Grand Regent Mrs. Gertrude Palen, will go toward the court's charity projects.

Among the court's current projects are working with the United States Navy's "Operation Handclasp," "Meals For Millions," scholarships, archdiocesan seminarian burse.

The next court social will be Thursday, when handmade aprons will be featured.

LDS Pacifica Ward Planning December Luau

The Fourth Quorum of Elders of the Pacifica Ward of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, in cooperation with the San Francisco Polynesian Ward, is sponsoring a Polynesian Luau December 4.

All details will be as authentic as is possible to create indoors, including many exotic plants, trees, grass hut, giant bird cage, wooden bridge entrance, a Ward spokesman explained.

The menu will include carefully prepared, real Polynesian food — plus American food. Attendance will be limited to 500 persons.

Proceeds are to be earmarked for the Ward's building fund to dedicate its new Stake Center.

Art Journey

"Art as the by-product of technology," explains Mrs. Susan Zimmerman, art teacher at Westmoor, is what she hopes her students will see as they journey to the Palace of the Legion of Honor. Mrs. Zimmerman's Design and Materials classes, which deal with three-dimensional art, will visit the musem today.

Candlemaking

A four-week candle-making session started last night in Daly City, but will run to December 8 — from 7-10 p.m. at the Arts and Crafts Center, 101 Peoria. There is an instruction fee of $6 plus supplies and the class is limited to 10 students.

THANKSGIVING DINNER

Turkey Roast with Prune Stuffing
Cranberry Sauce
Sweet Potatoes and Apricots
Calico Vegetables
Pumpkin Custard Cake

Good morning, good cooks.

Thanksgiving is truly the family holiday. In days past this meant the gathering of kith and kin from al points. The gathering of the family was simplified by the fact that way back when, famlies grew up, married and setled down in the same general area.

Such is rarely the case these days. Exciting jobs in distant places move families all over America, indeed all around the world. So it's not such an easy matter to get everyone home for Thanksgiving.

However most of us are fortunate in being able to have some of those we love together on this special day to give thanks for the many blessings we share.

If your gathering is a small one, you will be grateful that the poultry growers and distributors have planned for such a group. Turkey roasts make a delicious meal, especially when accompanied by a tasty dressing.

TURKEY ROAST WITH PRUNE STUFFING

1 3 to 4 pound turkey roast
½ cup butter or margarine
1 cup finely chopped celery
1 package corn bread stuffing mix, 6 to 8 ounces
1 tablespoon frozen or freeze-dried chopped chives
1½ cups plumbed California prunes
½ cup liquid from the prunes

Prepare the turkey roast according to the directions on the package.

Melt two tablespoons of the butter in a skillet, reserving the rest of the butter for later. Add the cup diced celery to the melted butter and cook until transparent. Place the package stuffing mix in a large bowl; add the tablespoon chopped chives and cooked celery.

Pit the plumped prunes and chop coarsely. Add to the dressing mix along with one-half cup liquid from the prunes. Melt the butter and remaining pour over dressing mix. Mix well.

Place on double thickness of aluminum foil (18x12-inches) and enclose. Place in oven 1 hour before turkey is finished.

When ready to serve scoop dressing into balls and arrange around turkey roast. Serves 6 to 8.

WHEN WE START planning the Thanksgiving meal the basics of dinner come easily to mind; turkey, dressing, cranberry sauce. Along with these old favorites we like to offer something new and different. These next recipes are just that, new and different.

1 can halved apricots, can size 2½
Whole cloves
Butter

Cook the three pounds sweet potatoes until tender. Drain and cool. Peel and cut into slices. You may use canned sweet potatoes if you prefer.)

Drain the syrup from the large can apricots and set aside.

In a large buttered casserole arrange the slices sweet potatoes and halves of apricots in alternate layers. Put a whole clove in the center of each apricot half on the top layer. Pour the apricot juice over all and dot with butter. Bake uncovered in 350-degree oven for 45 minutes.

This recipe for an attractive and delish vegetable dish comes from my friend Ceil Collin. I really is a gem.

CALICO VEGETABLES

2 tablespoons margarine
½ cup celery, cut on the bias
1 3-ounce can drained mushrooms
2 tablespoons chopped pimento
½ teaspoon salt
pepper to taste
1 package frozen peas and small onions, cooked and drained.

Melt the two tablespoons margarine in a sauce pan. Add the half cup celery, three ounces mushrooms, two tablespoons chopped pimento and half teaspoon salt. Cook 5 to 7 minutes; celery should still be crisp, and then add the cooked and drained peas and onions. Pepper to taste.

Serves 6.

NOW WE COME TO DESSERT, my favorite part of the meal. Pumpkin and mince pies are the traditional Thanksgiving treat and I'm a great believer in carrying on a tradition. However, we might want to bend tradition a bit and serve pumpkin in a different manner, such as this cake which was created in the test kitchens at Pillsbury.

PUMPKIN CUSTARD CAKE

1 pkg. yellow cake mix
one and one-third cups water
3 eggs
2 cups 1½-lb. 2-oz. can) pumpkin pie mix
2 eggs
½ cup boiling water.

Grease bottom only of 13x9-inch pan. In large mixer bowl, combine dry cake mix, one and one-third cups water and 3 eggs. Blend and beat as directed on package. Pour into prepared pan.

In small mixer bowl, beat the 2 cups pumpkin pie mix and two eggs. Pour evenly over batter. Pour the half cup boiling water over all.

Bake at 350-degrees 40 to 45 minutes, until toothpick inserted in center comes out clean.

I would suggest serving this cake with a dollop of whipped cream on each slice and a small candy pumpkin resting on the whipped cream for color.

LOYOLA GUILD'S 45th anniversary and musical will be held November 28 at the University Center Bulding on the University of San Francisco campus, according to Mrs. Calisto Musso, guild president. Proceeds will benefit scholarships for USF and St. Ignatius College reparatory. THE JAMES WRIGHTS (Janice Cesari)

Janice Lee Cesari, James D. Wright Exchange Vows

Friends and relatives of Janice Lee Cesari of Millbrae and James Doyle Wright of South San Francisco recently gathered for the couple's wedding at St. Dunstans Church in Millbrae. Brentwood Lodge was the setting for the reception which followed.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cesare Cesari and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clay Wright.

A full length white gown and train were worn by the bride when she recited her promises. Her sister, Barbara Joyce Cesari, was her maid of honor and bridesmaids included Mary Colangelo of San Francisco, sister of the bridegroom, Linda Cavallero of San Bruno and Jeannie Wright of South San Francisco, another sister of the bridegroom.

Thomas Raymond Wright stood with his brother as best man and guests were seated by Dan Colangelo, Doug Fontama and Darryl Fontama, cousins of the bride.

Janice was educated at Capuchino High School and James studied at South San Francisco High School. At present, the bridegroom is stationed with the U.S. Navy in San Diego aboard the U.S.S. Cocopa.

The couple honeymooned in New York.

Yuletide Candle Benefit Sale Set

Decorative Christmas candles are now being sold by members of St. Veronica's Women's Club to benefit the Sister Novitiate Fund.

The candles may be purchased at the Church on Alida Way in South San Francisco on Saturday before and after the 5 p.m. Mass and on Sunday at all Masses.

TERRA NOVA TOPICS

"WEB OF MURDER," the Drama Department's suspenseful mystery play about a houseful of people stranded in the clutch of a murderer, opens tonight, and will be the first of five performances scheduled for Nov. 18, 19, 20, and 21 of this month.

The cast will include Sharon Frydenlund as Minerva Osterman, an elderly owner of a spooky mansion, and Sandy Brenke as Stephanie Osterman, Minerva's middle-aged daughter.

Stacy Hall will play Minerva's young niece, Mary Hamilton, and Nancy Tomlinson is the ex-stripper, Belle Hamilton.

Nora, the old housekeeper is played by Sue Boöher, and Dr. Adler is portrayed by Rick Mendez. Other characters are Keith Latimer, Marcy's fiance, (Bruce Patterson), Pete Martinelli (Belle's gentleman friend), Kevin Gage, and Minerva's lawyer, Mr. Brooks (J.B. Gaswoski).

MEMBERS OF TN'S International Relations Club held their big "tea and cookie bash" at the home of their advisor, Jim Soden, last week.

They will be representing Czechoslovakia at the Model UN in Berkeley this year, and are planning a big fund raising musical extravaganza in December.

Student-PTA Project

Louanne Heath's Datebook

MRS. HAL FOX, of the Westmoor P-TA, reports students and parents having a good time preparing a fun project designed to raise money for the Westmoor student body and the chol's P-TA unit.

"Flea Market" are the magic words that will inspire residents to donate all kinds of salable items for Sunday's "market."

"Donations can be left at the Westmoor cafeteria on Saturday," Mrs. Fox said.

"Help bridge the gap when students and parents put their shoulders together on a common cause by collecting all you can," Mrs. Fox urged.

MRS. FRANCIS KELLY, publicity chairman for the Westlake Catholic Women urges persons planning to attend the Day at the Races, being sponsored by that group on December 2, to note that buses for Bay Meadows will leave the Westlake Shopping Center parking lot at 11 a.m., rather than 11:30 a.m.

Mrs. Howard Poblitz, general chairman, and Mrs. Richard Locke, co-chairman, are accepting reservations for the fun-day outting.

UPCOMING for the teen-age set is a dance to be sponsored by the Mercian Teen Club on Friday, November 27.

Jerry Tonelli is the chairman of the Pre-Holiday dance and he is being assisted by John Flynn, Frank Curry, Joe McKenna and Bill Shanahan. Plans call for dancing, to the music of the Utopians, from 8 p.m. until 11 p.m. Refreshments will be available at the coke bar in the Our Lady of Mercy parish hall.

Tickets, costing $1 per person, will be sold at the door. Members of the club and friends of the parish are invited to attend. Attire will be casual, but no jeans will be permitted.

FATHER WILLIAM RYAN, S.J. will serve mass this Sunday morning in the Riordan High School auditorium at 8:30 a.m., according to Mrs. Thomas Bocci, Jr., publicity chairwoman for the Riordan Guild.

The mass will immediately precede the annual Mother-Son breakfast in Chaminade Hall.

Reservations, costing $2 per person, are available from members of the guild executive board, according to Mrs. Marijuel Borges, chairman of the event.

MRS. URSULA HAUGHT, Mrs. Frank Noonan, Mrs. Patrick Regan, Mrs. Edward Oliva, Mrs. George Sigigie, Mrs. James Sharpen, Mrs. James Arena, Mrs. Conrad Reich and Mrs. David Campbell will be on hand to serve as hostesses when the Holy Angels Women's Guild presents its art exhibit and sale in the parish hall this Saturday.

Mrs. James Pretti is chairman of the event which is being staged for the parish by Michael Keith and Company. American and European artists' work will be offered for sale, with full exchange privileges, at prices beginning as low as $5, according to Mrs. John Lagomarsino, publicity chairman for the guild.

The sale, in the hall at 107 San Pedro in Daly City, will begin at 1 p.m. and close at 7 p.m.

In addition to the professional work which will be displayed, talented members of the parish will present a "mini-exhibit" of their works in one section of the hall, Mrs. Lagomarsino said.

TOMORROW NIGHT is the big night for members of the Boutique De Noel committee according to Mrs. Mario Mangini, publicity chairman for the Mary's Help Hospital Guild.

The annual Champagne Preview sale will begin at 6:30 p.m. in the hospital solarium with members and friends of the guild invited to attend the festivities and shop for Christmas items amid a vast assortment of elaborate artistic decorative items and a large assemblage of tempting holiday style edibles.

Mrs. Mangini reiterates that all proceeds from this annual holiday event will enable the guild to further fulfill its original pledge of $150,000 for the coronary care unit at the hospital.

Following the preview showing, the sale will continue for several days.

SEVENTY-FOUR members of the Art Guild of Pacifica have entered a total of 204 works in the Eleventh Annual Formal Art Exhibit which will be previewed Friday evening.

The preview of the show, being held in the Coastside Masonic Temple, is open on an invitation only basis, but the public is invited to view the exhibits the following day.

THE PACIFICA SPINDRIFT Players have added Robert Anderson, Jayclyde Bacom, Mrs. Jackiet Muhlebach, Mrs. Gladys Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ewald, Dave Campbell, Mrs. Donna Starr, Mrs. Pat Robinson, Mrs. Karen Roberts and Dr. Lawrence Cusick, to the membership roll.

"The Man Nobody Saw," by Elizabeth Blake, will be the highlight of Friday night's Family Night Dinner at Lakeside Presbyterian Church.

The play will be present by professional actors from the Family Service Association and deals with current family problems.

Dinner will be potluck style and tickets for the evening are being sold for $1 per person with a $4 limit for families, no matter how many members in the group.

For additional information, contact the church, 564-8833.

STUDENT ART PROJECTS at Franklin D. Roosevelt, George Washington and Westlake schools in Daly City are well worth a special "look-see."

"Imaginary Insects" is the title of an exterior mural at Westlake school and "Children of the World" is the theme for a new mural at George Washington School. At Roosevelt School students have drawn examples of old and new style means of transportation in the new concrete.

Helen Cordell, Rosalie Yerby and Muriel Glick are among those responsible for the children's efforts.

THE SERRAMONTE NURSERY SCHOOL garage sale will be held Saturday, starting at 11 a.m. in the garage at 79 Midvale in the St. Francis Heights area of Daly City.

OHS Foreign Pupil Program Slated

Several foreign exchange students from Skyline College will present a program of song and dance at the 8 p.m., Thursday meeting of the Oceana High School P-TA in Pacifica.

Roger Muller, an Australian exchange student who is a senior at Oceana will appear on the program, along with the school's a cappella choir directed by Robert Shedd.

The foreign exchange students will wear their native attire, and Wahib (Jim) Merchad, president of the Skyline International Club, will handle introductions.

Juan Bartolome, Janet David and Linda Medina will perform Filipino songs and dances; Danie Rubiano, Spanish songs; Bola Folayan, a Nigerian dance; Celal Alpay a Turkish dance; Roukoz Abouhahill, a Lebanese dance; Salina Lang and Ace Panama, a Tahitian dance; Max Poyer, a Samoan song and dance.

Wine-Tasting Event Planned

The San Bruno Association of University Women (North Peninsula branch) will sponsor a Mondavi Wine tasting party December 4 at the Millbrae Recreation Center.

At the same event, at 477 Lincoln Circle, 21 bay region artists will present a special showing and sale, announced Mrs. Thomas Lindenmeyer, the unit's cultural interests chairman.

Lola Mangini, Michael Addiego Exchange Vows

Lola Mangini, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Mangini, recently became the bride of Michael Addiego, son of the Sam Addiegos. Both families reside in South San Francisco.

The couple recited vows at St. Veronica Church. A reception followed at the Machinist Lodge in Burlingame.

Matron of honor for her sister was Lynn Gudaitis and bridesmaids were Gayle Mangini, Nancy Helvey, Diane Tyler, Pamela Montalto. Lori Mangini and Joan Addiego were junior bridesmaids.

Best man for his brother was Steven Addiego and guests were seated by Bill Mangini, Gary Gudaitis, David Rosa and Carlos Gonzales.

Both Lola and Michael attended El Camino High School. After honeymooning in Disneyland they are living in Millbrae.

THANKSGIVING FOODS

EASY-TO-READ DATES ON SAFEWAY BRAND FOODS HELP ASSURE FRESHNESS FOR YOU

Perishable foods (such as meats, eggs, dairy and bakery foods) sell so fast at Safeway they are on and off our shelves in a matter of hours. But we take no chances with freshness. Perishables which Safeway manufactures or processes carry dates to guide our store people. Here's how the date looks on a package of Safeway Brand cheese:

When the numbers "1-15-70" appeared on a cheese wrapper, our employees knew the package was not to be sold after January 15, 1970. Being positive no package remains on our shelves after the printed date assures you that Safeway foods you buy will remain fresh and good for many more days with proper home refrigeration.

THERE'S MORE FOR YOU AT SAFEWAY DISCOUNT

DEPENDABILITY — Everything You Buy Is Guaranteed

NATIONAL BRANDS — Full Selection At Discount Prices

For Those Extra Savings . . . Look For This Emblem → SUPER SAVER

When you see an item marked "Super-Saver," it means an extraordinary temporary savings, even below our regular discount price. When we make an exceptional purchase or receive promotional allowances from manufacturers, we have an opportunity to pass our savings along to you. Because these are temporary extra savings, we mark them "Super-Saver."

Council Won't Accept Pool

Shrinkage cracks on the surrounding deck of the new South San Francisco swimming pool are keeping the councilmen from officially accepting completion of the project.

A "low-key" opening planned for Sunday was postponed when Councilman Frank Bertucelli made a fuss about the cracks. On the request of Mayor Patrick Ahern, City Attorney John Noonan was to work up a bond agreement with the contractor before acceptance by the city.

"If it is not an abnormal job the contractor should not object to filing a bond equal to the cost of putting in the concrete," said Ahern.

Contractor is Martinelli Construction Company. The contract was awarded on a low bid of $436,014. Architects are Yuill-Thornton, Warner and Levikow.

"I see things that are not to my liking," said Bertucelli. "There are too many cracks. I'm not ready to accept it until they do it right."

Park and Recreation Superintendent Bob Maxey said he was concerned with the appearance the cracks made but was satisfied with the over-all job.

The park and recreation superintendent said that after numerous discussions with as many experts in the field of concrete work "no one feels this is a great problem. It is due only to the normal curing and shrinkage of concrete," said Maxey.

Since the initial review of the project by the councilmen, and their expressed concern with the cracks, steps have been taken to cover them up.

Maxey said a powdered pumic material has been forced into the cracks to blend with the top finish, and two coats of paint were then applied to the entire area.

A decision on pool acceptance is expected at the Monday night council meeting.

CAPTAIN ELIZABETH CLINE, has joined the Air Force recruiting team — assigned as nurse coordinator for the San Bruno office. Also a former civilian nurse for several years, Captain Cline's job is to assist registered nurses in submitting applications for the Air Force nurses corps.

Controversial Bar Wins Delay in Sign Battle

The "Outer Limits," controversial cocktail lounge in Daly City and San Francisco, got a one month breathing spell from the Daly City Planning Commission last week.

Instead of taking immediate action to have several allegedly non-conforming signs located in Daly City removed from the San Francisco establishment, the commission continued the entire matter until next month.

According to city officials the main reason for the continuance was the fact that the attorney for the club—which features acts supported by explicit sex movies—did not have time to review the lengthy report and reply to it.

In addition some 14 residents of the neighborhood in which the lounge is located appeared at the meet to protest the establishment. The commission apparently was not prepared for the group armed with its petitions asking the club be closed.

The site of the Outer Limits has caused many headaches between San Francisco and Daly City officials.

Entrance to the club is in Daly City at 2245 Geneva Avenue, while the exit (and the major part of the structure) is in San Francisco at 90 Pasadena.

A liquor license is in the name of owner Milton Harper and is listed at 90 Pasadena street, San Francisco.

Paul D'Andreas, investigator for the State Alcoholic Beverage Control Board, said charges have been filed against the license holder of the club — the part that's in San Francisco — for operating what he called "a disorderly premise."

On October 19, 1970 the San Francisco Board of Permit Appeals rejected a plea from owner Harper to allow the showing of movies in the bar.

D'Andreas said the club had been cited several times for continuing the "adult" films.

Daly City planner John Walker began moving against the signs for the Daly City section of the club (on Geneva) some two months ago.

The city apparently will ask a maximum square footage of 60 feet be installed without illustrations on what transpires inside the Outer Limits.

A spokesman for the city planners' officer said the present signs are in excess of the legal allowable square footage. Also, the club will not be allowed to erect new signs until plans have been carefully reviewed by the city.

Workshop Plans Studied

The second general meeting, Performing Arts Parents Club of El Camino High School, was held in the choral room of the school.

Len Mateo, president, outlined a program to assist the Performing Arts Department. Plans include a scholarship program and, if it is feasible, a summer musical workshop under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Marr. The membership, as well as the people of South San Francisco, will be asked to participate in fund-raising endeavors which will include buffet dances.

These activities will be planned to alleviate the cost to the citizens of the district and to help further the cultural knowledge of the students, according to Ron Acosta, publicity chairman.

Officers are Mateo, president; Joffre Longoria, vice president; Rene Harter, secretary; and Virginia Chrisman, treasurer. Directors are Acosta, publicity, Marr, musical director and Barney Lason, ways and means.

Teener Trip

The Casualiers Junior Teen Club is going to the Rolladium in San Mateo Friday. The bus will pick up members at Colma School at 7 p.m. and return by 11 p.m. Admission is $1.50 for members which includes skating, bus transportation and trip insurance.

DEATHS

Former Bruno Fire Chief Dies at 79

Private funeral services were held Thursday in Santa Rosa for Joseph S. Senger, 79, former San Bruno fire chief who died November 9.

Chief Senger had retired from the San Bruno fire department in 1955 and had lived in Santa Rosa for the past six years.

He was a native of San Francisco. He was a member of Sir Francis Drake Lodge No. 376 F.&A.M. Consistory of Scottish Rite Bodies, California State Grange and he was a life member of the International Association of Fire Chiefs and the Pacific Coast Fire Chiefs Association.

Survivors include his wife, Beatrice of Santa Rosa, two sons, Weldon of Santa Rosa and John of Salt Lake City, two daughters, Mrs. Jim Nunns of Red Bluff and Mrs. Spencer Hoag of Edmonds, Wash.; a sister Elaine Plain of San Francisco; nine grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Contributions to the Heart Association are preferred.

MARY HARBUCK

Mary Harbuck, 57, of 1188 Peralta Avenue, Pacifica, died November 11.

A native of Utah, she had lived in Pacifica for three years.

Survivors include her husband, Philip of Pacifica; two daughters, Mrs. Phyllis Sorenson of Pacifica and Mrs. Dorothy Mae Small of Concord; a brother, John Brklaich of Utah; a sister, Ann Jones of Missouri; and three grandchildren. A requiem mass was offered at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Pacifica today, with burial in Holy Cross Cemetery.

RUBY L. WOODS

Ruby L. Woods, sister of Henry Willis and Mary Henderson, both of South San Francisco, died at Burlingame November 11 at the age of 48.

She was a former South San Francisco resident, who lived more recently at Downey.

Survivors also include her husband Leverne and a daughter Saundra Lee Woods, both of Downey; four sisters and three brothers.

Funeral services were at 11 a.m. Friday from the Garden Funeral Chapel, with interment at Olivet Memorial Park.

Contributions to cancer research are preferred.

ROBERT L. HARMON

Robert Lee Harmon, father of Edwin Harmon of San Bruno, died in Fremont Wednesday at the age of 86.

A former guard for Matson Navigation, Harmon lived in California for 28 years.

Other survivors include another son, Paul Harmon of Salinas, a daughter, Reba Wallace of San Leandro, and three grandchildren.

Graveside rites were conducted at 1 p.m. Friday at Woodlawn Memorial Park under the direction of the San Bruno Funeral Home.

JAMES J. GOGGIN

James J. Goggin, 71, of 1419 Adobe Road, Pacifica, died November 10 in Redwood City.

Funeral services were conducted at 9 a.m. Friday from the Nauman and Lincoln Chapel by the Sea Mortuary, Pacifica, followed by a 9:30 a.m. mass at St. Peter's Catholic Church. Interment was at holy Cross Cemetery.

A native of Massachusetts and California resident for 18 years, he was a retired police officer and a member of the San Francisco Housing Authority.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Evelyn L. Sawyer of Pacifica and a brother, William of San Jose.

Bruno Man in 'Dracula'

Robert J Ribeiro of San Bruno has added "Dracula" to his repertoire of performances.

The original vampire play is his 76th stage appearance. He began as a cookie in "Hansel and Gretel", and worked up through the gravedigger in "Hamlet" to roles with the Mainliner Theatre, Stanford, Berkeley Drama Guild, Alameda Little Theatre and the San Bruno Theatre Guild.

A professional photographer who was born in San Francisco, Ribeiro plays the beleaguered Dr. Seward, whose lovely daughter, Mina, is caught in Count Dracula's evil spell in the Millbrae Players production playing Fridays and Saturdays at 255 Broadway, Millbrae.

VETERAN IS KILLED

A highly decorated San Bruno soldier was killed in an automobile-motorcyclist accident in Los Banos Thursday.

Robert M. Rosling, 20, 3281 Highland Drive, had been discharged two weeks ago in Fort Meade, Md., and was driving home when his cycle collided with a car.

He had served three years in the service with one year overseas in Vietnam. He had won the Bronze Star and the Purple Heart in addition to Vietnam combat medals.

Kitchen Fire in Pacifica

Fire of undetermined cause heavily damaged a Pacifica kitchen November 10.

Iona Loncaric, the occupant of the home at 560 Inverness Avenue, had left nearly an hour before the blaze involved the kitchen at 5:20 p.m., according to a Pacifica Fire Department spokesman.

Firemen have been unable to determine where the fire started. Kitchen cabinets were heavily charred and there was heat damage in the living room and smoke damage throughout the house.

Emporium to Be Built at Tanforan

A new Emporium department store will be built at the Tanforan Shopping Center in San Bruno.

The announcement was made on Friday by Ardern Batcheldder, resident of the Emporium Capwell Company, and Hap Smith, president of Hapsmith Company and developer of Tanforan.

Construction of a 207,000 square foot store is scheduled in the spring of 1971 with opening set for the fall of 1972.

The new Emporium will be the tenth for the company and the sixth on the Peninsula. It will be the third major department store to locate at the $28 million Tanforan mall, joining Sears and Penny's.

Batchelder said, "This new Emporium will bring the Big E's tradjtional big selection to this fast growing area and is part of our long-range plans to consistently serve our customers with wide selections of merchandise."

Teacher Ouster Upheld

Dismissal of a Westmoor High School art teacher who was convicted of possession of marijuana has been upheld by Superior Court Judge Louis B. Demtteis.

The jurist, who conducted a hearing in September, sustained the charges of "immoral conduct, evident unfitness for service, and conviction of a crime involving moral turpitude" brought against the teacher, Selwyn Jones, by the Jefferson Union High School District.

In a decision filed November 10, Judge Dematteis found that Jones was convicted in Hawaii on August 19, 1969 and admitted at that time that he smoked marijuana. The jurist said it was not established at the hearing that the crime was a felony and he did not sustain the district's charge of dishonesty. He did find, however, that "the charges sustained adversely affect the defendant's fitness as a teacher."

Jones, a tenured teacher who had 10 years' service with the district, was suspended on October 14, 1969, after the district received information about the conviction in Hawaii. The District Board of Trustees ordered his dismissal but Jones contested the action and demanded a hearing.

S.S.F. Girls Stage Show for Charity

The American Cancer Society received a contribution recently thanks to the ingenuity and hard work of three young South San Francisco girls.

Karen Scocca, 14, 2234 Kenry Way, Laura Aboudara, 11, and Louise Aboudara, 14, 2217 Kenry Way, held an Arts and Crafts Show in the Aboudara garage.

The girls had made rings, wall plaques, yarn flowers, flower pots, napkin holders, paperweights, pencil holders and necklaces, and then sent out 100 invitations to teachers, neighbors, relatives and friends.

They cleared over $100 which they promptly turned over to County Cancer Society officials with the comment, "We decided your cause needed it the most."

Last year, the girls conducted a similar project and turned receipts over to Biafran relief.

UNICEF Sale at Pacifica

UNICEF'S annual Christmas card sale will be through two outlets in Pacifica this year, at Periwinkle Art Gallery, 303 San Pedro Avenue, and from Mrs. Phyllis Osborn, Pacifica UNICEF drive chairman, 1468 Crespi Drive.

Proceeds will go toward aid for the world's needy children through some 500 programs. Five boxes will buy 85 medicine droppers for a mother and child health center, Mrs. Osborn says.

Cards will be in 20 different designs. UNICEF datebook calendars, a wall calendar, a 200-piece jigsaw puzzle and a new gift pack of 50 notes, and birthday cards also are available.

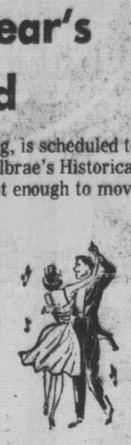
BRIGHT LIGHTS BY LLOYD JOHNSON

Celebrate "New Year's Eve" This Weekend

The 16 Mile House, Millbrae's oldest building, is scheduled to be demolished in a few weeks. Efforts of Millbrae's Historical Society were unsuccessful in raising funds great enough to move the old building to a new location, with the accompanied costs of new foundation and restoration. The past eleven years, the one-time stagecoach stop has been very popular as one of the finest gourmet dinner houses on the Peninsula. The Victorian atmosphere, old nickelodians and excellent cuisine have endeared it to many. The restaurant operator, Scotty Howatt, says Sunday, November 22, will be the last day 16 Mile House will remain open. Since New Year's Eve can not be celebrated here this year, decorations for December 31 are up now for the remaining twelve days.



NEW GENERAL MANAGER — The Marriott Inn has announced the appointment of "Nat" Soto as General Manager of the Belmont hotel. A native of Caracas, Venezuela, Soto started his career with the Marriott Chain in September, 1969 as Front Office Manager of the Belmont location. He was appointed Assistant Manager earlier this year, and when Sam P. Apostle was transferred to a Marriott property in Minnesota, "Nat" assumed the duties of General Manager. A master linguist, "Nat" speaks, reads and writes five languages.

Peruvian dishes are a specialty at Torres Beach restaurant, in Montara (just south of Devil's Slide on Coast Highway One). This famous eatery, owned and overated by that indefatigable team of Frank and Fannie Torres, is famed for these dishes, and they are prepared in such a way that they have yet to be duplicated by any other restaurant in the state of California . . . A lot of people believe that dancing is dead, kaput, but no Bill Broman, owner-manager of the Sinaloa cantina in North Beach, the last remaining bastion of the tru all-Latin revue. Bill is now offering dancing on Sunday evenings from 8 p.m. to the music of Carlos and Emerson. He invites one and all to kick up their heels . . . Reardon High School held a special fashion show last Saturday afternoon, and one of the top models of clothes from Mr. G's of Stonestown was Iva Piccinini, wife of Oreste's Restaurant owner, Joe Piccinini . . . With the talents of Hank Barron and pianobar in the cocktail lounge, Cote D'Azur restaurant in Atherton is the perfect spot to spend an evening in a very relaxing atmosphere. Dine leisurely and enjoy distinctive food. Open every day except Sunday . . . Many stars from Hollywood as well as political and financial figures make Doros their luncheon and dinner place when in San Francisco. The superb Holiday award-winning cuisine and the rarest of world wide wines attracts the gourmets.

Following the policy of years past, Vince's Italian and Seafood restaurant will not be open on Thanksgiving Day. The Licatas and their devoted restaurant staff will be enjoying the Holiday with their families. But expect to see the whole crew back at their posts the following busy Friday to pamper your palates. . . The Shirt Tail in Palo Alto, recently the subject of a feature story in a San Jose rotogravure section, features the entertainment of Gail and George Muribus Mondays through Wednesdays, and guitarist-singer Edmundo Rivan Wednesdays through Sundays . . . With moderate weather temperatures holding out in the Stateline, Lake Tahoe area, many fun seekers have been driving to the territory of casinos, fun and entertainment. When driving, be sure to drop by one of Park Avenue Tours' offices and take advantage of their liberal bonus refund. Each passenger in your auto is entitled to a bonus, at Barney's Casino and the South Tahoe Nugget . . . Villa Hotel will be featuring a special "buffet service" Thanksgiving dinner which sounds like a winner. Complete dinner for seniors and juniors — and the price is right. "Get more and save more," says General Manager Jerry Greenbach . . . Tino Costantino and his brother Rosario will open their Tino's European restaurant for dining on Thanksgiving Day. The regular menu of gourmet fare will be served, plus a traditional Holiday dinner.

Vince Licata

Handsome Bill Griffin is the general manager and major guiding force at Hyatt House Burlingame, which is one of the most successful properties in the growing Hyatt chain. Among his myriad duties as helmsman, Griffin even oversees the message on the Hyatt's Bayshore marquee, which is usually changed several times a week . . . Executive chef Dick Hoffman and his crew will get a day off Thanksgiving Day, as the Blue Peacock restaurant in Kings Bowl will be closed for the Holiday. The following weekend will have them working extra hard — several groups are erpected to convene in the Blue Peacock's spacious banquet rooms . . . When with their parents, children (under 12), may dine free at Yolanda's Terminal Cafe, located in South San Francisco's Produce Terminal. The offer is valid on Monday nights only, and Manager John Hutchinson specifies that the hours be from 4 p.m. to 10 p.m.

No Lull In Business At S.M. Stickney's

Stopped by Adrian Stickney's San Mateo restaurant for a late-night snack Tuesday evening and enjoyed a chat with Assistant Manager Dan T. McFarland. "No lull in our business," said Dan with a twinkle in his eye. "In fact, Manager Jim Gamberton and myself are very pleased with the way business is going." Stickney's in San Mateo opens its doors at 11:30 a.m. daily to serve you. Because of limited banquet space, early party reservations are suggested for the Holidays . . . A. Sabella's restaurant at Fisherman's Wharf is the "In place" for the smart set. Excellent menu of seafoods, red meats and fowl. This is an exciting spot for Holiday parties, and the entire top level of this three-story restaurant is devoted to making functions, large or small, a grand affair . . . Lush greenery along the stairway leading to the second-floor Moonraker restaurant in Rockaway Beach, Pacifica, create a pleasant introduction to the nautical decor. Nick Gust, who also owns and operates the Papagayo Room located on the lower level of the same building (Mexican fare is the specialty here), and Nick's restaurant across the street, says a special mercury vapor lighting illuminates the beach and rolling surf at night as guests dine on Continental cuisine prepared by chef experts.

A. Stickney

Lew and Edith Lehr have made the name Lew Lehr's synonymous with quality and fine service. Their Marina steak house has that "make yourself at home" atmosphere that brings you back again and again . . . Don't wait for Monday and Wednesday to roll around in order to dine at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel (these are the prime rib days). Chef's Specials are featured every day, with entrees changed daily, in addition to a la carte selections. Same moderate price for both luncheon and dinner . . . Andy Ardito, general manager of Atherton's Lord Fletcher Inn, is the perfect host for such a prestige restaurant. His confident, sophisticated manner is quite appropriate in these elegant surroundings, yet his genuine friendliness is a welcome quality . . . A special menu for Senior Citizens is offered at Foster's Farm-Fried Chicken House (in addition to the regular menu) Mondays through Fridays, and it's really enjoyed and appreciated. All Senior Citizens need do is show their Medicare Card for identification. The $1.25 complete dinner is served 11:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. . . . Walls sheathed with tartan, dark woods, artifacts and a fireplace lend warmth to the cozy dining areas of Scotty Campbell's, an atmospheric restaurant in Redwood City headed up by Teresa and Bud Urban, and Mary Lou Francis. The menu assures a pleasurable meal, and family dining is encouraged.

Edith Lehr

Lucien, the "Male Sophie Tucker" in Finocchio's colorful revue of female impersonators, has a baritone that sounds like the voice of the famed Miss Tucker (he actually started his singing career as a boy soprano). Lucien was a member of a church chorus in New York, and from that beginning went on to a show business career on the old Orpheum and Pantages vaudeville circuits. Always a show-stopper, Lucien is at his best when he is exchanging jibes with fans at ringside . . . Pizzas are the specialty of Enrico Romano, owner of Romano's Italian restaurant, located in Rockaway Beach, a picturesque area of Pacifica. Small, medium or large, Enrico will see that your pizza is exactly the one you want it to be—light, fluffy and covered with all the ingredients that have made his pizzas famous throughout the Bay Area . . . Social and business occasions which demand a prestige locale can be satisfied in the bar of Les Champs Elysees, a superb restaurant in Reno's newest luxury high rise, the Arlington Plaza Motor Hotel. Whether the occasion begins with pre-dining fare or begins and ends in the restaurant bar, you will be impressed with the total presentation . . . Ace KPIB newscaster Ron Majors hosted a Steak Shallot dinner party in the elegant Wellington Room of Phil Lehr's Steakery in downtown San Francisco.

Youths Learn About Gov't

People are what local government is all about, Arlen Gregorio, San Mateo County's senator-elect, told a Youth in Government gathering in Pacifica.

Gregorio emphasized that only interested, active persons, at all levels, can make government work.

He said that 25 years ago his own interest was aroused when as a student in Burlingame he participated in a municipal Youth in Government Day.

Don't miss the experiences of local government interest, Gregorio told the students, cautioning that if local government fails through lack of interest it will become remote, with the democratic process collapsing.

He attributed his successful election to the 12th District senate seat to "young people" who got out to the precincts, talked to people, put up signs, knocked on doors and made phone calls.

All that, Gregorio said, represents the "kind of campaigning that money can't buy."

Paul Poso of Terra Nova High School was the youth mayor of the city, while Oceana's Mary Robinson teamed with Vice Mayor Grace McCarthy.

Other student councilmen were Jane Sawyer and Ed Bonollo of Terra Nova and Dennis Howard. Oceana's Duane Profeit was the city manager, and Susan Alley was the assistant city manager.

Sitting as chief of police was Michelle Leialoha of Oceana, with Bill Alexander of Terra Nova the fire chief.

The city's various commission chairmen, and other high-ranking municipal officials also had their counterparts in the day-long activity.

Gregorio's talk was at a Pacifica Rotary Club luncheon for the Oceana and Terra Nova High School students participating in the City of Pacifica's tenth annual Youth in Government Day.

PACIFICA STUDENTS met with municipal leaders and staffs for tenth annual Youth in Government Day. Talks, films and tours made up the program, as did a coffee break when informal discussions continued. Mayor Nick Gust is surrounded above by (from left) Dennis Howard of Oceana, Paul Poso of Terra Nova, Cheryl Sharp of Terra Nova, Mary Robinson of Oceana, Jane Sawyer of Terra Nova and Ed Bonollo of Terra Nova. (Post Photos)

The day began at 9 a.m. with a welcoming talk by Mayor Nick Gust, a review of city government operations by asst. city manager Carl Kuhn, and a youth and government presentation by city manager Jim Swayne.

For nearly two hours the students met with their municipal counterparts at the various city offices.

Is Injured

Jacinto B. Contreras, 26, 106 Linden Avenue, South San Francisco, was seriously injured Wednesday in an auto-motorcycle collision in Burlingame.

Police said Contreras was riding a motorcycle south on El Camino Real, near Trousdale Avenue, when his vehicle was struck from the rear by a car.

Broadmoor Girl Raped

A 17-year-old Broadmoor girl was raped by two men in a closed Daly City service station Wednesday, police reported.

The victim was walking home west of School Street after getting off a Greyhound bus at Mission Street shortly after 10 p.m. when she was accosted by a large man armed with a short-barreled revolver, she told the authorities.

The man forced the girl to a closed gas station near Werner Street where he and a companion both raped her police, said.

The pair then took the girl's purse and fled on foot.

Daly City Police Capt. John Walsh was contacted by the girl at the nearby Junipero Serra and 87th Street intersection at about 10:20 p.m.

She was taken to Mary's Help Hospital, then to the Chope Community Hospital, where the rape was confirmed, police said.

Last Session For President

Pacifica-Coastside Board of Realtors President Sandy Kasitz will preside over his last informal luncheon meeting Wednesday at the Muffin Mine in Eureka Square.

Mrs. Maxine Turner of the Richmond Branch of the Bank of America Wednesday will discuss the role of the woman in today's business world.

Lunch will be served at noon.

Fee is $910

Peat, Marwick, Mitchell and Company of San Francisco has submitted a bill for $910.50 to South San Francisco for consulting services.

The firm aided the city on which direction to take to preserve industrial property from being eaten up by location of Interstate 380 off-ramps.

Gun Victim Took Some Bad Advice

A South San Francisco mechanic was wounded on San Bruno Mountain Sunday when a rifle discharged while he was using it to break up a dog fight.

Harry K. Edwards, 50, of 454 Gardenside Avenue, was reported in satisfactory condition today in Mary's Help Hospital. Attendants said he suffered a wound in the abdomen.

The victim told Deputy Sheriff Gene R. Masini that he was on the mountain at noon, training his dog, when another dog came up and the animals started fighting. Edwards said he heard a voice behind him yell.

"Beat the dog with your gun."

Edwards accepted the advice but while striking at the dog with the butt of the rifle the stock broke and the weapon discharged.

Masini said the incident was witnessed by the owner of the second dog, William B. McQuain, 57-year-old mechanic of 479 Holly Avenue, South San Francisco, who left the scene to call an ambulance.

Need Eyed

South San Francisco Director of Department of Public Works Lou Goss has been instructed to prepare a report on the cost involved in constructing a sidewalk along Hillside Boulevard.

Car Slides Over Bank, 3 Injured

Three Coastside residents were injured at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday when a car crashed down an embankment off of San Gregorio Road.

Highway Patrolman Ben Donahue said there was light rainfall when the auto, driven by Walter G. Davis, 43-year-old bartender of 350 Shasta Lane, Pacifica, slid off of the road on a curve three miles east of Cabrillo Highway.

Taken to Chope Community Hospital were Davis and passengers Michele Brosing, 18, of La Honda, and Christine D. Slack, 53, of 465 Espana, Pacifica.

Shots Fired at D.C. Youths

Three quick shots were fired by a passing motorist at two youths shortly before 8 p.m. Thursday as they stood and chatted on a Daly City street corner.

The shots missed their apparent target and the suspect sped off.

Steve Murphy, 18, of 3971 Chilton Lane, San Bruno, and James Hamilton, 18, of 26 Northridge Road, Daly City, told police they were standing at the corner of Northridge and Carmel Avenue when the car drove up and the driver fired a handgun.

Pacifica Selects C of C Executive

Thomas R. Sawyer has been selected executive vice president of the Pacifica Chamber of Commerce.

To replace Dan T. Johns, who has moved to Tulare, Sawyer wil assume his duties December 1.

Sawyer is giving up a career with the First Western Savings and Loan Association of North Las Vegas, Nevada, with which he has been assistant vice president and loan officer since 1964.

Married and the father of four children, Sawyer has been active in numerous North Las Vegas community activities.

He has been a president of the Jaycees and the chamber of commerce there, as well as a national director of the United States Jaycees.

Sawyer, a native southern Californian, was chairman of the North Las Vegas City Planning Commission, charter secretary of the Las Vegas Southwest Rotary Club, and was three times the general chairman of the North Las Vegas Progress Days.

Thomas R. Sawyer

Prior to 1964, he was employed by the Nevada Savings and Loan Association for two years, after Department of Defense employment as an aircraft electrician.

Molasses, Pumpkin Join Forces in Baked Goods for Holiday Season

Molasses and pumpkin are great partners in baked goods, so now that the entertaining and gift-giving season is here, it's time to bake some molasses-pumpkin holiday treats to serve at home and to give as presents.

Molasses and pumpkin are traditional American favorites — as symbolic of the late fall-early winter holiday season as is turkey. Fresh pumpkin is available in most markets during this season, but canned pumpkin is equally suitable for these dessert recipes.

Molasses Pumpkin Pie is a new version of an old favorite — a basic pie filling with an assortment of refreshingly unusual creamy whipped toppings. The filling itself is sweetened with a combination of brown sugar and light molasses, the latter providing an appealing richness. Make the pie several times, with perhaps one topping for Thanksgiving, another for Christmas, still a third for a Sunday dinner.

Holiday Pumpkin Bread is an unusual, nutritious, moist, chewy loaf. Made with light or dark molasses, it will keep fresh for days — making it excellent for presenting as a gift, perhaps with some homemade preserves or jams. Firm enough to toast, it's a treat to serve with whipped sweet butter or cream cheese and your favorite hot beverage.

MOLASSES PUMPKIN PIE

1½ cups mashed cooked pumpkin
½ cup light brown sugar, firmly packed
¼ cup Brer Rabbit light molasses
2 teaspoons pumpkin pie spice
1 teaspoon salt
4 eggs, well beaten
2 cups milk or light cream
1 unbaked 9-inch pie shell with a high fluted edge, frozen or homemade

Combine pumpkin, brown sugar, molasses, spice and salt. Beat in eggs and milk or cream. Pour mixture into pie shell. Bake in a preheated hot oven (400 degrees F.) for 35 to 40 minutes or until pie is puffed and firm in the center. Serve warm or cold, garnished prettily with one of the following toppings.

Spicy Topping

Combine 1 cup whipped cream, 2 tablespoons Brer Rabbit light molasses, ¼ teaspoon nutmeg, and ¼ teaspoon cinnamon.

Special Orange Topping

Combine 1 cup whipped cream with 3 tablespoons Grand Marnier or other orange liqueur. Spoon on pie and sprinkle with finely chopped candied orange peel.

Peanut Crunch Topping

Combine 1 cup whipped cream with 1 tablespoon confectioners' sugar, ½ teaspoon vanilla and ¼ cup crushed peanut brittle.

Whipped Cheese Topping

Whip 1 (3 ounce) package cream cheese, ½ cup confectioners' sugar and ¼ cup heavy cream. Add 1 teaspoon grated orange rind and 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Makes 1 9-inch pie.

HOLIDAY PUMPKIN BREAD

1-3 cup vegetable shortening
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
½ cup Brer Rabbit light or dark molasses
1 cup mashed pumpkin
2 cups all-purpose flour
¼ teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon baking soda
½ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons pumpkin pie spice
1 cup coarsely chopped walnuts
Walnut halves for garnishing

Cream shortening and stir in sugar and eggs. Stir in molasses and pumpkin. Stir in remaining ingredients. Beat until well blended. Pour mixture into a well greased 9 x 5 x 3-inch loaf pan. Arrange walnut halves on top of loaf. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 1 hour or until done in the center (a knife inserted should come out clean). Unmold and cool thoroughly on a rack. Cut into thin slices and serve spread with butter or whipped cream cheese.

Makes 1 9 x 5 x 3-inch loaf.

Main Dishes on 'Plentiful' Foods' List

According to a "Plentiful Foods List" issued by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, the pork supply for autumn is about 10 percent higher than last year. Chicken, too, is plentiful.

This is good news for the housewife, because it means lower prices, too.

Since it's also apple season, this is a good time to treat the family to Prok and Apple Casserole. of these two familiar companions.

Chicken is always welcome, especially since there are so many ways to prepare it. Sunday Chicken is easy because its made with seasoned coating mix for chicken. The sauce features sour cream and Parmesan cheese.

Pork and Apple Casserole

1 - 3 cup sugar
2 tablespoons all-purpose flour teaspoon cinnamon
⅛ teaspoon nutmeg
4 cups sliced, peeled tart apples
1 envelope seasoned coating mix for pork (or use 1 envelope seasoned coating mix for chicken — mild flavor.)
8 lean pork cutlets or chops, ¾ inch thick (about 2 lb.)
¼ cup (about) water or milk

Combine sugar, flour, cinnamon, and nutmeg; mix with apples. Spoon into a well-greased 13x9-inch baking dish. Empty seasoned coating mix into plastic shaker bag. Moisten pork cutlets with water. Shake off excess liquid. Shake 2 or 3 pieces at a time in the bag until evenly coated. Arange pork in a single layer over the apples. Bake, uncovered, at 425 degrees for 50 minutes. (Always cook pork thoroughly.) Makes 8 servings.

Sunday Chicken

2½ pounds frying chicken pieces
1 envelope seasoned coating mix for chicken — mild flavor
¾ cup sour cream
¼ to 1-3 cup Parmesan cheese
1 teaspoon cornstarch
2 tablespoons milk

Coat chicken with seasoned coating mix as directed on package. Arrange chicken in single layer in ungreased shallow baking dish. Bake at 400 degrees for about 30 to 35 minutes or until browned. Meanwhile, combine sour cream, Parmesan cheese, and cornstarch; stir in milk. Spoon over part of each piece of chicken. Do not cover chicken pieces entirely. Continue baking for 15 to 18 minutes or until chicken is tender and sour cream topping golden parsley, if desired. Makes 4 brown. Garnish with chopped servings.

Try Fondue for Brunch

A Sunday brunch merits something extra-special as the main course. A baked cheese fondue, using cream of chicken soup as a base will delight family and guests alike.

Baked Cheese Fondue

3 eggs, separated
1 can (10½ ounces) condensed cream of chicken soup
1 cup shredded sharp Cheddar or process cheese
¼ teaspoon dry mustard
2 cups small bread cubes

Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Beat egg yolks until thick. Blend in soup, cheese and mustard; stir in bread cubes. Fold in egg whites. Spoon into 1-quart casserole. Bake at 325 deg. F. for 1 hour. 4 servings.

Variations on Traditional Liver Recipes Headline Nutritious Meals

Liver is king when it comes to nutritive value of meats. What other meat cut supplies 10 day's worth of vitamin A in one 3½-ounce serving! One portion also satisfies for any member of the family the daily recommended allowance for iron, so necessary for healthy circulation, and one-half the recommended adult allowance of protein which is essential for repair of body tissues. It's an exceptional contributor of B vitamins, too.

Since adequate nutrition is so important for good health, liver's role as a menu entree should not be overlooked, according to National Live Stock and Meat Board home economist Reba Staggs. Panfried liver and bacon with onions is a traditional recipe but to encourage new appetite interest, cut liver in strips and deep-fat fry, braise with vegetables or wrap around bundles of green beans to cook with a tasty sauce.

Braised Liver—Cuckwagon-Style

1½ pounds liver, sliced ½ inch thick
¼ cup flour
1½ teaspoons salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
3 tablespoons lard or drippings
2 cups thinly sliced carrots
1 cup diced onion
1 medium-sized green pepper, diced
Salt and pepper
¼ cup water

Cut liver into serving-sized pieces. Combine flour, 1½ teaspoons salt and ⅛ teaspoon pepper. Dredge liver in seasoned flour and brown in lard or drippings. Arrange vegetables on browned liver. Season vegetables with salt and pepper. Add water. Cover tightly and cook slowly untily liver is tender and vegetable are done, 30 to 35 minutes. 6 servings.

Liver Bundles with Green Beans

1½ pounds beef liver, sliced ⅛ to ¼-inch thick (6 slices)
¼ cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon celery salt
6 tablespoons sweet pickle relish, drained
1 can (16 ounces) whole green beans
3 tablespoons lard or drippings
¼ cup onion, finely chopped
1 cup cooked or canned tomatoes
1 teasooon Worcestershire sauce
Flour for gravy

Combine flour, salt, pepper and celery salt. Dredge liver slices in seasoned flour. Place 1 tablespoon pickle relish on each slice. Drain green beans, reserving ¼ cup liquid. Top relish with 7 to 8 green beans. Roll as a jelly roll and fasten with wooden picks or tie with a string. Brown in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Combine reserved liquid, onion, tomatoes and add to liver. Cover tightly and cook 25 minutes or until done. Thicken cooking liquid with flour for gravy, if desired, 6 servings.

Prepare Salad Ahead of Time

Prepare this hearty salad in the cool of the morning and slip it into the refrigerator until serving time. Drain syrup from canned cling peach slices, add water to make 2 cups and heat to boiling. Dissolve a package of lemon-flavored gelatin in the hot liquid and chill until slightly thickened. Fold in 1 cup each canned cling peach slices and cottage cheese and ½ cup mayonnaise. Pour into individual molds and chill until set.

Eggplant's Varied Roles At Mealtime

Eggplant is a unique vegetable. It can be served as an appetizer, a salad, a vegetable dish or casserole, or stuffed and served as the main course.

To buy the best quality eggplant, here are some tips from the United States Department of Agriculture's Consumer and Marketing Service.

Eggplant is most plentiful during the late summer, but some are available all year. Look for eggplant that is firm, heavy, smooth, and uniformly dark purple in color. Avoid those that are poorly colored, soft, shriveled, cut, or which show decay in the form of irregular dark-brown spots.

Allow about 1½ pounds of eggplant for 4 servings. Eggplant should be stored at cool room temperature (approximately 60 degrees). To retain its quality, use it within 2 to 4 days.

For a new entree, try this eggplant recipe:

BAKED EGGPLANT

¾ cup flour
1½ teaspoons salt
teaspoon pepper
1 plump eggplant, peeled and cut into 6 crosswise slices
1 egg beaten
1 tablespoon milk
1-third cup oil
½ pound ground veal or beef
½ cup chopped fresh mushrooms
1 tablespoon chopped onion
¼ cup day-old bread crumbs
2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese
1 egg, slightly beaten
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
6 tomato slices, ½ inch thick
Fresh parsley garnish
Yoghurt topping, optional

Mix together first three ingredients. Dip eggplant slices in flour, then in egg mixed with milk, and then in flour mixture again. Heat 3 tablespoons of oil in a large skillet. Brown eggplant on both sides. Place slices in bottom of 9 x 13 x 2-inch baking dish. Saute veal, mushrooms and onion in remaining oil until meat turns brown. Remove from heat and blend in next 5 ingredients. Spoon over eggplant slices. Cover dish with a piece of foil. Bake in preheated moderate oven (350 degrees) for 20 minutes. Uncover, top with tomato slices and bake 15 minutes longer. Serve with yoghurt topping and parsley garnish. Yields 6 servings.

Yoghurt topping: Combine 1 cup unflavored yoghurt with ½ minced garlic clove, 1-third cup grated cucumber and salt and pepper to taste.

For a spicy variation, use Italian sausage instead of ground meat.

Chicken Is 'Glorified' With Cheese

Chicken is almost always a good buy and, fortunately for the budget, it is a favorite with most families. Glorified Chicken is a delectable switch from the basic methods of cooking the popular bird.

Health Sanitarians are Underrated

This is the first of a three-part series on the duties, problems and activities of county public health sanitarians. This segment explains their reason for being.

By BOB PETERSON

It was a beautiful morning in late August. Gilbert Ballardo of 1056 Crestwood Drive, South San Francisco, was driving along Hillside Boulevard bordering Colma. He stopped his car when his nostrils no longer savored the fresh air. Instead he smelled an insecticide.

Ballardo noticed a young man in a field spraying dust over flowers. He was covered from head to foot with powder. It was all over his face and his ears.

Concerned, Ballardo stopped to ask what was being used. Concern became alarm as Ballardo noticed a discarded bag was labeled "DDT and two per cent Parathion." He recalled a recent television broadcast in which, if he remembered correctly, a poison called parathion contributed to the death of several farmers.

An attempt to communicate with the man spraying the flowers revealed that he could not speak English. The man later said he has bad headaches when he used this material. Ballardo, seeing the dust flying into the direction of Sunshine Gardens section of South San Francisco, realized he must report his findings. He was not sure what, if any, dangerous materials were being used.

Ballardo contacted the North County Division of the County Department of Public Health and Welfare, the first step in a long investigation.

Findings by the county Department of Agriculture showed the powder contained 10 per cent DDT and two per cent Parathion.

It also was learned that the user, a San Francisco firm, has a valid permit to apply DDT in a wetable spray, but not as a dust. Nor does the permit include the use of Parathion.

According to the Agriculture Department Parathion and DDT cannot be sold without a permit.

The matter is now in the hands of the District Attorney to determine whether a criminal prosecution is warranted.

This case points up the effectiveness of an underrated group—public health sanitarians.

These sanitarians, environmentalists if you prefer, were covering the gamut of environmental health problems long before ecology was an every day word.

The county has approximately 25 sanitarians working in various aspects of environmental health, including housing, food, water, air, occupational health, industrial hygiene and rodent control.

Most sanitarians belong to the California Environmental Health Association. This organization has always been in the forefront of environmental health and ecology.

Some people equate sanitarians with the old food inspectors who were once politically appointed persons, or a policeman type. Times have changed. All are true sanitarians. All must have a college education with a bachelor's degree and a minimum of 30 units in the sciences. This includes bacteriology, chemistry and physics.

That is but the beginning. After the basic education each reports to a department of public health where he will undergo a year as an assistant sanitarian. After that year, he must pass a state examination. Succeeding this, he becomes a registered sanitarian. Now all that is left is one more trip to the local health department for one more test offered by that particular local health department.

Registration is granted through the state. The test is prepared in conjunction with the state administrative code.

The associaion recommends one sanitarian for every 15,000 population. The average is more like one for every 50,000.

A good sanitarian is a jack of all trades. He must know about hepatitis and ringworm, yet be a mechanic.

Being a sanitarian is basically preventive medicine. They operate under the authority of the California Health and Safety Code and the California Administrative Code.

Sanitarians admit every city has its problems. But they also contend some of the business operations are as much as 15 to 20 years behind the times in cleanliness.

They say they find things in their job that amaze them. Things people don't expect in this day and age. They see garbage strewn about and witness the pollution of the waterways, simply because people are not cleaning up after themselves.

NEXT: Conditions and situations a sanitarian must be prepared to face, and make decisions on.

OF COURSE WE'VE got proofreaders at this newspaper, but you'd never know it by some of the goofs they make. Take, for example, that lead paragraph in last week's column: It was supposed to be a clever way of telling everyone we spent the last three weeks in Japan and that our CP Air jetliner landed in San Francisco BEFORE we took off from Tokyo — the latter because of the International Dateline and all that. After the back shop got through with it that little blurb read like a Japanese menu.

FORMER D.C. CHIEF Wilbur Sunderland, retired in 1952 after more than 20 years on the force, is in Golden Gate Community Hospital. Critical condition. The 74 year old lawman, whose son James is a motorcycle cop in D.C., had a colorful career, starting as a muleskinner in the Army during WWI. A card would be nice.

THERE ARE OTHER printers who also make a few goofs from time to time (believe it or not) Pretty Georgette Marignac, who owns the Westlake beauty salon, had some new cards printed up for her business. One side came out okeh, but somehow a mysterious message was printed on the opposite side showing a cat with kittens and reading, "Ya gotta make calls if ya wanna get results.' " Funny message for a beauty salon.

AND IF THAT'S not enough, equally pretty Olga Barta, who recently opened a massage studio for women in Georgette's beauty parlor, likewise had a booboo on her cards. Seems the number on Olga's business cards (992-7500) is the phone number for MERCY AMBULANCE COMPANY. I've heard of rough massages, but I've never heard of having to call an ambulance BEFORE you get one. Kidding aside, it just wasn't her week, Georgette tells.

OLGA BARTA is a story in herself. Having escaped five years ago from behind the Iron Curtain with her husband and two children, the family literally lived out of a suitcase for the next few months. Matter-of-fact, a single suitcase was all they managed to bring across the border with them.

AUTHORS ANONYMOUS — A book entitled "Police Leader" will soon hit the stores. It's a handbook for police leaders that makes sense!—co-authored by Daly City Police Captain Dave Hansen and Lt. Tom Culley. All potential police leaders are urged to rush out and buy a copy — in six months.

SHUFFLING AROUND — Daly City re-shuffled its "cabinet" the other day —named assistant city manager Don Fleming to be the city's rep on the Information & Referral Center and administrative assistant Rick Wilhelm to the D.C. Neighborhood Council. Rick was on the Info Center board prior to this assignment and D.C. City Clerk Anna Ohlendorf represented the city on the Neighborhood Council. Pressing city business dictated Mrs. Ohlendorf's not being reappointed.

IT TOOK A LOT OF MONEY (and wasted a lot of time) for South City councilmen to find out that Colma Creek won't flood for a long, long time. Perhaps not until another 30 year storm strikes the area. Their own director of public works, Lou Goss, told the council some time back his calculations indicated the area was safe. But a persistent citizen demanded a "professional" study, so the city contracted the firm of Nolte & Associates to agree with Goss.

SYLVIA GAYLORD, the rather shapely songstress who will be warbling at the upcoming (November 21) Westlake Merchants annual Big Game night dance at the Thunderbolt Hotel, says she doesn't just sing songs. "I interpret them." Having watched Miss Gaylord's performances at several Nevada shows we must agree. And it didn't take much arm twisting for us to agree.

NOW WE HEAR THAT the Mission Merchants Association will have their function on the same night as the D.C. Chamber Installation and Westlake Merchants Association. Talk about split personalities. Some officers of the Chamber are in a frenzy (and worse) over which party to attend.

AND OVER IN SAN BRUNO the council is looking for an eager citizen to volunteer his services to the newly-formed Skyline Recreational Highway Advisory Committee. Anyone wanting to work long hours for no money contact city hall.

NOT ONLY DOES the Information & Referral Center in South City want its annual $5,000 (they got it) but also a city car and one additional city-paid-for personnel slot The council is nixing the request for car and person.

26 Police Officers Killed, 650 Assaulted

Between July 1 and September 30, 1970, there were 26 police officers killed, 650 assaulted or injured, and 141 bombings throughout the nation. Activity is presently under way among high government officials alerting them to the dangers of kidnappings or other acts of extremists groups.

Many people say that the enactment of more laws will resolve most of the problems.

Perhaps because the killing of a police officer has become so common place the reaction by the public is limited. However, I believe the figures set forth here reflect some of the responsibility of the police officer in the community, and it is now up to the community to react and take a stand for their official delegates.

ENACTMENT of additional legislation is fruitless, unless the judicial system is allowed to handle cases expediently, and contend it is unpopular to assault or kill a police officer or any other individual.

Recently, the Canadian Labor Minister was kidnapped and killed. The Canadian government took emergency measures.

In a period of less than three months 26 officers have been killed, little activity by governmental agencies or the public toward a solution is seen.

CALIFORNIA CRIME TRENDS — A University of Southern California research team compiled a computer study on crime trends in the Los Angeles County area revealing that to maintain the present level of service would require 55,000 law enforcement employees in 1975, compared to the present level of 19,778. Sheer overload of the system would occur by 1985 and by the year 2000, there will be 1.25 million serious crimes in the county each year as compared to the 300,000 in 1970.

Except for the difference of a smog problem do the people of the Bay Area think our problem is much different?

VERBAL ABUSE — Toledo, Ohio, issued a city ordinance prohibiting verbal abuse of law enforcement officials. Under the law anyone calling police officials "pigs" may be arrested on an abuse charge and sentenced to 30 days in jail or fined $50.

In California where the thinking is somewhat different, law enforcement has numerous members who wear "pig" tie tacks, cuff links, sweat shirts — even watches similar to the Spiro Agnew watch.

A number of the agencies have adopted "pigs" as their mascots, and it is not unusual to walk into a police locker room and find large posters proclaiming, "Pigs is beautiful."

Sharing Emotions

SAMUEL CHANDLER

Daly City Librarian

A CONVICT in the Pennsylvania State Prison found an English sparrow suffering from a broken wing. He took her to his cell, glued two matchsticks onto her wing to keep it spread and secured it to a cardboard device to keep her from fluttering about. He fed the sparrow wet crumbs for several days until she began to eat from his hand. In time the wing mended and the convict released the bird.

For two weeks the sparrow stayed around the prison. Then, after one day away, she appeard again at noon, circled over the heads of a thousand men marching from the dining room and finally settled on the shoulder of the man who had befriended her.

Such incidents convince the authors Vincent and Margaret Gaddis that "animals share with man the same emotions — elation and grief, passion and contentment, gratitude and affection. They too, can know the heat of anger, the sting of rejection, and the pleasure of fellowship."

IN A BOOK entitled The Strange World of Animals and Pets, they relate many curious tales of bravery, devotion, genius, kindness, wizardry, recognition, telepathic communication and kinship with men.

Each chapter in the book gives truth to Browning's statement, "God made all the creatures and gave them our love and our fear, to give sign, we and they are his children, one family here."

Truely, the Strange Wold of Animals and Pets is a book for everyone to read especially pet-lovers, historians, scientists, story-tellers and readers who enjoy being enthralled with every page of the books they read.

More animal stories may be found in Margaret Truman's book, White House Pets. Every presidential family brought animals to the White House; everyone received many more as gifts.

George Washington required his stable boys to begin to curry and groom his horses promptly at sunrise — sometime later in the day the head groom was required to walk through the stables and rub each horse with a muslin handkerchief. If the muslin showed a stain, the luckless stable boy who had worked on the horse was punished on the spot.

Woodrow Wilson, on the other hand, did not care for pets although his daughters kept both dogs and birds, but when World War I started and the White House gardeners went to war, he purchased thirteen ewes and one old ram who endeared himself to the nation by chewing tobacco and by butting his horns into anyone who did not respect his position as the keeper of his harem and the sire of a stream of presidential sheep.

PRESIDENT WILSON'S sheep were a far cry from the menageries that have lived with other presidents. The John F. Kennedys' kept horses, chipmunks, birds, dogs, rabbits, and cats. President Harrison kept a goat that roamed through the white House. To please General Lafayette, John Quincy kept a live alligator in the East Room.

Calvin Coolidge had a goose that was worth $100,000 dollars. Theodore Roosevelt's children kept a lion, hyena, snakes, roosters, a zebra and five bears. Thomas Jefferson had a mockingbird that would not leave the presidential mansion and was therefore adopted by Mrs. Madison who learned to appreciate the birds great charm.

Margaret Truman's book is light reading filled with tid-bits of history that support her theory that the pets one keeps reflects his character. It is a book with a little substance, the kind one reads at lunch or an hour before bedtime.

The 'Dead Horse'

JAMES HALLEY

Post-Times Columnist

A dead horse, in Navy parlance, was a payday devoted to back debt. The seaman who had already spent his pay drew a dead horse and had nothing to show for his time.

Dead horse politics has become more and more popular. With hundreds of thousands or even millions of dollars required for campaigns, it is not unknown for losing and winning candidates to have spent staggering sums in excess of income.

Losers ordinarily swallow the back debt personally. They make a composition under which creditors receive partial payment — or go bankrupt. Winners present a different and more serious problem.

Winners have the capacity to pay debt, and the manner in which they pay is morally troublesome.

First, a glance at election day. The band plays, the crowd cheers, and the candidate appears before the devoted faithful. After thanking his campaign workers, his wife, and his mother, and promising to seek the Holy Grail, the debt-laden candidate casually announces that "our job is not yet done." And how right he often is. The faithful must collect money, often more than was raised in the campaign.

In 1968, Max Rafferty delivered himself to the Republican party after the Senatorial primary along with a dead horse in excess of $125,000. In 1970, John Tunney favored the people of California with himself and $600,000 worth of back debt. These are only two recent examples. Foolhardy (or calculating) campaigns have been doing this for years.

In both of these cases, the debt came to public attention as a shock and surprise. In each instance, the candidate's organization gave the appearance of an ongoing campaign funded by a multitude of contributions from devotees rich and poor. The illusion of success was developed with borrowed money or by piling up unpaid bills.

Now it may be that the people would have elected John Tunney and Republicans nominated Max Rafferty in any event. But it seems that many voters may have expressed their distaste for such profligate campaigning at the polls. Whatever the case, if the campaign had been required to declare its debt before election, the people would have known what they were buying.

Rafferty's victory was in a primary election and his campaign's financial problems were presented to his supporters and the Republican Party. But Tunney's current problem is really worse.

Six Hundred Thousand Dollars! And who is expected to pay? People who want to elect John Tunney a Senator? No — because he is a Senator-elect already. Nice people who want to give their money to help a young man? Probably quite a few, but hardly $600,000 worth.

No matter how carefully the solicitation is made, the probable donor is someone who wants to be on good terms with a voting Senator; in other words, people who expect favors or favorable action from an important incumbent.

American politics is money bound. True enough, both major political parties have tried to broaden the base of donations but the crunching necessity of large contributions remains. An attractive wealthy man who wants a fling at politics has a better chance than an attractive poor man. An incumbent with good third house connections can survive when grassroots support is long gone. Add to this the surprise debt situation discussed in this article, and the potential for mischief is unbelievable.

The American public, with its low voter interest and low voter turnout, is ultimately at fault. Only by packaging candidates, by sloganeering and by use of modern media techniques, can some campaigns reach through the massive indifference.

Corrective legislation is required, or we could one day awaken with a true disgrace on our hands. Some restriction, such as the English practice in which campaign expenditures are limited to so much money per voter, seems wise. In addition, the media really belong to the people. There is no reason why radio and television should not be compelled, on some practical basis, to provide free time for major candidates.

American elections are supposed to produce representatives of the people. If the present trend continues, future elections may only produce the best that money can buy.

Surging Vikes Surge Enough

Mills came up with another one of those second-half surges against Crestmoor on Friday at Burlingame Field, but this time the result was a little different.

This time the Vikings won, 13-6. Previously, Don Peter's squad fell two points short of upsetting league-leader Hillsdale in the last quarter, and earlier in the year rallied in the last quarter only to be nipped by Aragon.

The Vikes started out just the way they have in almost every game this year — very slowly. Quarterback Jay Merrill, who seems to need a half to get warmed up, wan't quite hitting his receivers, and the offense couldn't sustain a drive.

Crestmoor, meanwhile, was moving smoothly behind the hard southpaw slinging of Jim Jarvis and the quick thrusts of George Ama. The Falcons scored the first time they had the ball, moving 73 yards in fourteen players, with Jarvis throwing four yards to Chuck Bommarito for the score. They led at the half 6-0.

Then came the second half, a Mills specialty. Jarvis was pressured and his receivers blanketed. He completed just one of seven and the Falcons garnered but one first down for the entire half.

The Vikings, on the other hand, were just getting warmed up. Merrill completed five of seven for 94 yards and a score while his running backs were slicing for 106 yards. Together they got 11 second-half first downs.

Gerry Castleberry scored from the three on the second play of the fourth quarter and Jim Romeo kicked the conversion that put the Vikes ahead to stay. Later, after the Vikes had recovered a fumble at the Falcon six and were penalized back to the 20, Merrill fired a strike to flanker Mike Shirinian for the insurance score.

"I guess we've been thought of as patsies this year," Peter said afterward, "but we've played good football. Right now what I'm worried about is (Keith) Lax and (Kevin) O'Donnell from San Mateo the kids we're going to have to face next week."

CSM Season Is Runnerup Year

By JERRY LITTRELL

With every last hope of a miracle finish now completely gone, the College of San Mateo Bulldog football team, now pretty well disbanded, must settle for its second straight second-place finish in Golden Gate Conference action.

Last week held many last-season hopes for the Bulldogs. There was always the hope of a Laney upset of Chabot. And how about the ineligible player Diablo Valley had used this year? A CSM win in the finale against Merritt Junior College was a third hope.

The only thing that came through was the Merritt victory. Playing an inspired offense in the second half and with its usual stiffling defense, CSM bombed undermanned Merritt, 46-6, setting several records along the way.

But Fate's perverse sense of humor killed the other chances cold. First of all Chabot downed Laney to win the title. Then it was discovered that Diablo Valley's ineligible player had played in every game except the CSM contest — which was the only loss suffered by CSM all year. DVJC had to forfeit its other games but the

Cap Defeats Burlingame

By JOHN HORGAN

People in San Bruno were beginning to talk.

And their conversation bordered on heresay.

Crestmoor a better football power than Capuchino? Don't be silly. But wait. Just look at the record. There were the Falcons sporting their best-ever Mid-Peninsula League mark. And where was Cap? In the league's basement, that's where.

It was food for thought. Until Friday, that is.

The Mustangs, losers of all of their prior MPL tests, finally got together on their own field and ripped apart Burlingame, 32-0.

"We lose all three of our league games and some people were starting to get on our backs," Capuchino Coach Vince Marchi said after Friday's victory.

"I guess we've won so many titles and so many games that people just expect us to do it all the time," he went on.

Marchi was alluding to the fact that Cap had been favored to take the MPL championship again this year.

As it stands now, the 'Tangs are 1-3 in league action. And they face that hometown rival, Crestmoor, this Friday night at the Burlingame district field.

Marchi wasn't about to make any predictions about who might win that one but he wasn't going to shy away from the obvious fact: "Yes, Cap is back. We're finally healthy again. We've got all our key men back."

He had a kind word for the Falcons too. "They are a vastly improved team. We respect them."

You can bet Crestmoor Coach Johnny Browne (an ex-Mustang great himself) feels the same way about his old alma mater.

He and his staff got a good look at what Capuchino is capable of as the Mustangs ground down Burlingame with a stiff pass defense and a quick running attack.

Capuchino scored five touchdowns. They came like this:

In the first period, Jeff Callicotte tore through the Panthers on a 21-yard run and Scott Stra-

S. Bruno Rec Volleyball Set

The traditional winter volley ball program for adults is being renewed on Thursday nights in the gymnasium of the San Bruno War Memorial Recreation Center.

This informal low-key recreational type of volley ball is available to men and women age 18 and above and the gymnasium is exclusively reserved for volley ball on Thursday nights between 7:00-9 p.m.

A recreation leader will be on duty to assure each individual of the opportunity to assist them in volley ball play suitable to their own skill level.

Because of the large number of participants, participation will be limited to San Bruno residents.

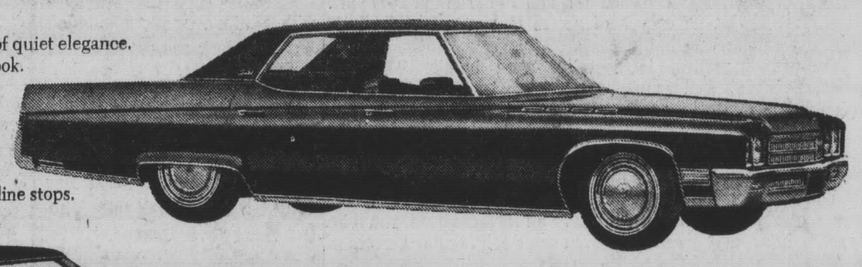
1971. Buick introduces a new set of values.

Value, not gimmicks or ornamentation, sells cars.
More people have been coming to Buick each year for just that reason. Buick concentrates on value.
And this year, Buick introduces a new set of values. Features that will help make your new Buick perform better, last longer and get you more of a return on your investment at trade-in time.
Only a Buick dealer can offer you our new set of values. So, test your values against our new ones. Then ask yourself this simple question. Wouldn't you really rather have a Buick?

Something to believe in.

1971 Buick Riviera. A totally new design concept. And that's not all. Riviera offers MaxTrac, an exclusive power control system you can order with its own on-board computer. It helps you get securely over slick surfaces by reducing rear-wheel slipping. The new body features side-guard beams for protection, a bigger trunk, and a driver cockpit with a control center designed around the driver for new ease and convenience.

1971 Buick Electra 225. A new interpretation of quiet elegance. We've improved our Electra everywhere you look. There's more room in every direction, interiors that can be appreciated as much for their durability as for their beauty and comfort, even a new balanced braking system. A unique valve proportions braking force front to rear to help give you quick, smooth straight-line stops.



1971 Buick Centurion. This is our newest Buick, a city car with sleekness and grace as well as muscle. It features more nimble variable-ratio power steering, power front disc brakes, Full-Flo ventilation, and a vinyl roof on the Centurion Formal Coupe as standard equipment.

1971 Buick Skylark Custom. This is the car that has set the pace for value in its price class. Rocker panels that wash and dry themselves, big-Buick room and comfort inside, a cooling system that should never overheat, inner fenders that protect the outer fenders, and a modest price have put our Buick Skylark traditionally among the resale leaders in its class.

1971 Buick LeSabre. An incredible new offering of Buick value. The LeSabre, like the Riviera, Electra and Centurion, features AccuDrive, a new version of the directional stability system we pioneered. It will help give you smooth handling.

An Important Improvement. Every new Buick engine is now designed to run smoothly and efficiently, and with lower exhaust emissions, on no-lead and low-lead gasolines. And every Buick V-8 engine will have exclusive nickel-plated exhaust valves for smoother operation and longer valve life, and a new time-modulated choke to help give quicker warm-up and a more consistent fuel mixture.

Taking the Foot Out of Football

LAST YEAR THE 49ERS successfully took the foot out of football. This year, thus far, they seem to be at least about four toes back into the game.

As you may remember, unless you've already sublimated it, the 49ers were ineffective in just about every phase of the kicking game, whether they were booting it themselves, receiving it, or covering opposition runners after they had kicked it to them. They were respectable only in the punting department, finishing in the middle of the NFL 16 team pack in average yards per punt — 40.5.

They were hurt most directly in the place kicking department, as inaccuracy by incumbent Tommy Davis and replacement Momcilo Gavric probably cost them at least a .500 record; not an ideal season, but better than their 4-8-2. As a team, the 49ers were next to last in the NFL in field goal efficiency. That's right, NEXT to last.

Believe it or not, Green Bay had a worse time of it than San Francisco, although the difference was academic. The Packers had 6 of 22, the 49ers 6 of 21.

Individually, there were only three less effective field goal kickers than Davis in the NFL. You guessed it. One of them was Gavric, the other two Green Bay Packers, Mike Mercer and Booth Lusteg. Davis had 3 of 10, Mercer 5 of 17, Gavric 3 of 11, and Lusteg, 1 of 5. Davis' longest boot was for 29 yards, which was the shortest longest boot of any other NFL kicker aside from Lusteg, whose one FG carried 28 yards. At least Mercer managed one at 48 (Gavric's all-time boot went 32.)

BUT, AS YOU KNOW, now that we've undoubtedly dredged up these unkind memories, it wasn't only field goals which ruined the 49ers. They were last in the entire NFL in punt return average (2.9), and next to last in kick off return average (19.3 — only the Giants were worse, barely, at 19.2).

They also easily led the NFL in average yards allowed per kick off return (27.6), and were better than only three teams in average yards allowed per punt return (7.5).

But this year it's all different — including, already, the win record. Last time we looked former Ram Bruce Gossett was among the four or five most effective accuracy kickers in the NFL, rookie Bruce Taylor was vying hard for the leadership in punt returns, and Bill Tucker fourth in the NFL in kick off returns. As a team the 49ers were at least respectable in preventing long enemy kickoff and punt returns.

GOSSETT, ISN'T A FLASH in the pan, despite that 19 yard game-losing flub against Atlanta early in the season. Coming into this season he'd missed only four extra point tries in six full seasons, and those four came in his first two years. He had led the league once in extra points made, once in field goals made, and once in scoring. His lifetime FG average was 58 per cent (Tommy Davis, who was considered one of the best until his last couple of rocky years, managed only a 47.1), and he was considered perhaps the best medium-long field goal kicker in the game.

Last year with L.A., Gossett had the third best percentage in the NFL (64.7) behind Minnesota's Fred Cox (70.3) and Detroit's Errol Mann (67.6). He hit on 21 of 22 from the 39 yard line in, which was far better from that range than either Cox or Mann had managed, and it was from that range rather than the spectacular 40's and overs that the 49ers had lost.

In other words, pro teams only "lose" games on the 39 yard and under field goals which don't make it. Anything they make beyond that range is considered gravy — more pure luck than anything else. The skills of field goal kicking, they feel, can only truly be "learned" in the 39 and under range.

For instance, Sam Baker of the Eagles was on paper the NFL's most successful "long" kicker of field goals, as his average field goal traveled 31.3 yards and he made 6 of 13 in the 40-49 range. But he hit on only 4 of 7 in the 19 and under range and his overall average of 53.3 was only seventh best in the league.

Probably the NFL's truly most dangerous man from outrageous distances was New Orleans' toeless Tom Dempsey, whose average attempt was a startling 38.1 yards in length. He hit, overall, on 53.7 per cent of his attempts (his longest, 55, was the league's longest), and rammed through 7 of 11 in the 40-49 yard range. But he hit on only 3 of six in Gossett's favorite 30-39 range.

Dempsey's misses, incidentally, were heroic. When he goofed, he didn't fool around. The average length of a Dempsey miss was 46.6 yards.

IF YOU'RE HUNG UP on field goal statistics, read on, because they obviously intrigue us.

You may have the notion that Cox and Dempsey and Gossett were something special, but if you're an NFL die-hard, you'll be sorry to hear that there were even more spectacular kickers in the AFL.

Kansas City's Jan Stenerud had a field goal completion percentage of 77.1, including an average of 66.7 (6-9) in the 40-49 yard range and 66.7 (2-3) in the 50 and over category.

And Cincinnati Bengal booter Horst Muhlmann missed field goals an average of 49.3 yards in length, yet managed to be the third most effective FG kicker in the AFL with an overall percentage of 66.7.

In all the AFL as a league made good on an average of 57.8 per cent of the times it attempted FG's, as against the NFL's 52.7. In the 50 and over range, the NFL made only 5.3 per cent of its attempts, while the AFL made a whopping 29.2 per cent. At the 40-49 yard range, it was NFL 27.5, AFL 30.5. Obviously, the NFL was master on the tiddley-wink boots.

SPEAKING OF KICKOFF RETURNS and such, a strange dispatch emanated from a combined A.P. and U.P. story last week. In reporting on the condition of O. J. Simpson after he had injured his ankle on a kickoff return, the story, in explaining how he had sustained the injury, explained, "Simpson was hurt returning a kickoff when he was tackled hard by a dozen Bengals . . ."

You can interpret that any way you wish, i.e., they play Canadian football in that other league; the Bengals play dirty; those officials are weird. But one thing is certain. With a whole team — and playing over its quota, at that — hitting him simultaneously it's a wonder Simpson came out of the collision with only a "moderate sprain of the left knee." He could have been murdered

WE'RE KNOCKING on wood as we write this, but one factor in the 49er success which seems to have been generally overlooked in all the frantic analysis of the team maturing together, finally learning Nolan's complex machinations, etc., is the virtual absence of serious injuries, expecially to key players.

The last four or five years have been nightmares for the 49ers in that department. And where they have sustained bad injuries, it's been in spots where they're deep, such as defensive end, where Stan Hindman has been of almost no use this year. But rookie Cedric Hardman and "utility" vets such as Earl Edwards and Sam Silas have filled in admirably if not spectacularly.

TAG END: Strange Statistics Department: In college, the great Buddy Young had a better punt return average than kickoff return average . . . 19.9 to 18.9.

South S.F., El Camino Tie

Outcome Might Have Given Colts First NPL Title

By JERRY LITTRELL
Post Correspondent

"It may be the first football title ever won without an offense."

That sage comment came from El Camino High School football coach Tom McCormick on Friday after his gallent Colts had battled cross-town rival South San Francisco to a scoreless tie. The 0-0 outcome should, in all probability, give the Colts their first-ever North Peninsula League championship.

One game remains for both SSF and Camino .But with their tremendous defensive unit, which has progressed steadily with each game, the Colts need not score a point his week either when they end the season against Oceana. Another scoreless tie will suffice. It could happen.

The Colts are now 5-0-1 in league action while the Warriors are 4-0-2, having also battled co-favorite and defending champion Westmoor to a similar 0-0 tie. Points have been scarce in the NPL biggees.

The only positive factor, as far as the Warriors were concerned, was the continuance of that amazing scoreless string South City has against the Colts. The shutout marked the seventh straight Warrior shutout of Camino. EC has never scored a touchdown or field goal against SSF in nine years of league play.

This also marked the first time in NPL history that Camino has shut out the Warriors.

The Warriors never had field positon in the first half starting two of four drives from the one and the four yard lines. Camino didn't fare much better until the closing moments of the half when Rick Clarke intercepted a Bob Bachtold pass on the 39 with 28 seconds left. But an attempted 34-yard field goal in the final three seconds fell way short.

A bad snap from center on an attempted punt early in the third quarter gave Camino the ball on SSF's 24. But the Warrior defense stiffened with its back to the goal and stopped quarterback Dale Momii's fourth down rollout on the two yard line.

A 44-yard pass from Bachtold to end Tony Sotoa opened the final quarter and appeared to give SSF momentum. But Camino's defense dug in on the 23 and stopped the Warriors on the 17. Exit all scoring threats.

Colt halfback Al Spitzer and Warrior fullback Wayne Ciardella were the outstanding backs of the game. Spitzer, besides playing defensive back, passing twice, and punting, carried for 77 yards — all with a broken right hand. Ciardella powered for 53 tough yards against that brick front wall of EC.

LOOK, MA, ONE HAND! Jefferson's Steve Barnes seems to have one hand in pocket as he picks up Indian yardage against Terra Nova High Friday. (Post Photo by Starr)

First Jefferson Win; Serramonte Defeated

Tom Martinez is one happy fella today.

His Jefferson Indians won their first North Peninsula League game on Friday, 28-23, over Terra Nova and it was the first win for rookie coach Martinez since he took over the varsity job this season.

Halfback Anthony Aaron and quarterback Chinto Fonseca provided most of the offensive heroics for the Indians who never trailed after taking a 14-0 first-quarter lead. Aaron scored the first Indian td on a two yard run and wide receiver Steve Javier made it two in a row with a 20-yard pass from Fonseca.

The two squads then exchanged scores the rest of the way. With four minutes remaining in the game Dave Godsoe ran eight yards and quarterback John Racanelli's two-point conversion pulled the Tigers to within five. TN got the ball back with a little over one minute left but the clock ran out after four straight passes.

In other NLP action last week Westmoor surged in the second half for a 27-0 victory over Serramonte while Half Moon Bay staged a second half rally for a 13-8 victory over Oceana.

Substitute quarterback Brad Kearns found flanker Jeff Orlich on two bombs as the Rams, lethargic in the first half, came on strong at the finish. The Orlich-Kearns combination scored from 23 and 50 yards out after sophomore Nick Lablanc's eight yard run in the third period broke open a scoreless duel.

Westmoor's final td was on fullback Tom Price's three-yard scamper.

Im the last quarter defensive back Dave Riley picked off a Serramonte pass for his 10th inaway from the all-time league terception of the season, two record.

Halfback Jeff Yerian was a one-man demolition team for the visiting Cougars against hard-luck Oceana on Friday. He scored all 13 HMB points in the five-point victory.

Yerian opened the scoring early with a one-yard run and added the PAT kick. After Oceana went ahead on Ric Summy's two-yard plunge and Dave Araquisitin's fake-kick PAT run, Yerian ended a 50-yard Cougar drive with just 1:27 left with a 10-yard run. After a major penalty had given HMB the ball on the 32, Yerian carried on four of five straight off-tackle plays for the winning score.

The win overshadowed an excellent running performance by Oceana's Ric Blasquez who toted the ball 13 times for 130 yards.

CSM Booters Deadlock Again

College of San Mateo's soccer team has played three games this month and has yet to get a decision.

After tying league pacesetters Canada and Skyline in successive outings, the Bulldogs got off to a 2-0 lead over Ohlone Friday but eventually settled for a 2-2 standoff. Martin Inquez and Dimitri Montalvanos booted the early goals and CSM missed several good chances for the winning goal late in the game.

Lucia Honored by NorCal Football Writers' Group

John Lucia has been doubly honored for his four-touchdown performance in College of San Mateo's 41-17 victory over San Jose CC.

The Northern California Football Writers recognized the former El Camino High quarterback as the week's outstanding JC back, to go along with his "Bulldog of the Week" designation from the CSM coaching staff.

Lucia's former cross-town high school opponent defensive back Phil Andre from South San Francisco High, was picked as CSM's "best hitter" for the San Jose game.

Lucia, who also came on late last year to spark the Mateans to their final four wins, came off the bench in the second quarter to replace starter Wayne Willis after the Jaguars took a 10-6 lead on a scoring pass interception return.

Lucia went to work, completing 11 of 19 pass attempts for 169 yards and four scores to double his current season yardage and completion record. Catching the scoring aerials were All-GGC tailback Mike Chiurco, Lucia's former high school teammate Frank Anderson, and freshmen Dan Cozart from Sequoia and Dan Romeo (Mills).

"Lucia's a real sleeper," noted CSM coach Bill Dickey. "He'll make some senior college a fine quarterback."

Dickey also had high praise for Andre, a 6-2, 190-pound cornerback. "He came up and contained extremely well against their rollout attack," Dickey pointed out. "He stopped the sweep and option plays of their fine quarterback and contained their running while also holding his receiver to just three receptions for 24 yards. San Jose netted only a yard per running play for the game."

CSM Poloists Go Undefeated

The College of San Mateo water polo team concluded its Golden Gate Conference season on a successful note on Friday by swamping San Jose, 14-8, in the Bulldog pool.

The victory gave coach Rich Donner's crew a perfect 10-0 GGC record and their second straight championship. It also marked them as the team to beat in the state finals.

Les Hamann set a new school record when he tallied nine goals for San Mateo.

A Runnerup Season for the Bulldog

victory over CSM remained intact.

The Saturday finale against Merritt provided a potpurri of enjoyment for everyone except Oakland fans. The two graduating quarterbacks, sophs Wayne Willis and John Lucia, combined for 22 completions and five TD passes in just 33 attempts for 310 aerial yards. And, as is fair, flanker Tom Scott collected the few remaining CSM records he doesn't already hold.

The red-headed pass-catcher caught four more for 89 yards and one touchdown and ran for another. He broke the old two-season scoring record of 140 points held by Al Namanny by 10 points. He has scored 78 points this year, six more than last year when he won the GGC scoring title. However, DV's Pat Riley already has this year's scoring title locked up.

Scott also holds the one and two-year passing yardage and reception record for CSM. His Merritt output was gravy.

After a slow start Saturday, they led just 13-6 at the half, the Bulldogs finished with an awesome flurry of 33 second half points. Lucia got CSM on the board first in the second period when he found his favorite receiver, Frank Anderson, on a 14-yard pass. Willis gave the halftime advantage to CSM with an 18-yarder to Dan Romeo.

CSM scored the first three times it touched the ball after intermission. Lucia hit frosh Dan Cozart from the 40 on the fifth play into the third period for a 19-6 advantage. Lory Bernardini cut loose with a 42-yard run on the Bulldogs' next series which set up Scott for his two-yard score. Bernardini ended his CSM career in impressive fashion garnering 78 yards in just eight tries for game honors.

Then it was Willis' turn as he found Scott on a 27-yard pass. Linebacker Dan Montelongo picked off a Bob Romano pass just into the final period and ran 18 yards for a high-stepping 39-6 lead. The last touchdown was so easy it should have been thrown back. Lucia hit Romeo on a 29-yarder and the Bulldog end was so open no defender was withing 15 yards.

The defense again came through with the expected excellent performance. Merritt threw the ball 24 times but gained just 57 yards. The running game fared not much better getting just 33 yards.

Title or not, it was one heck of a season.

thearn weaved past them on a 66-yard punt return.

In the second quarter, Bob Scott grabbed a 42-yard pass from quarterback Keith Hernandez.

In the third, Callicotte tallied again, this time on a seven-yard run.

And, in the last period, Barry Vison swept left end on a six-yard ramble.

The contest was not exactly a love-in.

Three players were thrown out. Burlingame lost center Mark Scoggins in the third frame for slugging. With about four minutes to play, Burlingame's Joe Schembri and Hernandez got into a fight and both of them were tossed out.

By that time, it didn't really matter.

KYA-JEFF CAGE TILT

Rec Events at El Camino High's Gym

The South San Francisco Recreation and Park Department will open up El Camino High School's Gym three days a week for recreational activities starting Saturday.

Saturday hours will be from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesdays and on Thursdays the gym will open at 6 p.m. and close at 10 p.m.

Basketball will be the most prevelant activity both on a drop-in and scheduled basis. Other activities will also be offered including drop-in volleyball and badminton for those who wish to participate.

An adult basketball managers' organizational meeting will be held December 1, at 7 p.m, at the Magnolia Recreation Center.

Cage League Action Begins

The Daly City Recreation Division's Adult 3-Man Basketball League began last Monday at the War Memorial Community Center with first round wins being picked up by Pedroni A.C., the Athletes, and the Lucky Six.

Pedroni sparked by the 22 point scoring of Rick Walter, trimmed an aggressive No Names crew, 41-30. David Martinez and Tim Bailey paced the losers with 14 points apiece.

The Lucky Six rolled past the Pomona Casuals, 40-28, to notch their first league win. Norman Jang was high point man for the winners with 16 points while Ken Kiser led the losers with 12 points.

The Athletes utilized a fine 22 point effort by Hughie Sanders to upset a tough Liquor Land team by the score of 41-29. Dean Prince and Denny Alsterlind spearheaded the losing attack with 13 and 10 points respectively.

Santa Maria Next CSM Harrier Foe

The routine of qualifying over, College of San Mateo's unbeaten cross country team eyes the Northern California title this Friday at Allan Hancock College in Santa Maria.

The unbeaten Bulldogs had little trouble blitzing all other league members in the golden Gate Conference Finals yesterday afternoon at Foothill with a low total of 45 points. The race shaped up for the four remaining qualifying spots with San Jose CC finishing second with 73 points, Diablo Valley third (77), Chabot fourth (78), and CCSF fifth (107).

Although San Jose's unbeaten Jack Bush won the four mile race in a record 19:10, frosh Vic Massa led CSM for the first time this season by placing second in 19:35. The ex-Serra athlete became the sixth different runner to lead the Bulldogs in their eight league outings this season.

San Mateo dominated the "All-GGC" top ten with another frosh, Wayne Smith from Mills, taking seventh in 19:47 and soph Dave Robertson sprinting home tenth in 19:56.

CSM went 11-0 in dual meets this season, including 7-0 for the conference championship, and also won the Sacramento State Invitational.

Playground Hours Changed on Saturdays in Daly City

The Daly City Recreation Division has scheduled several flag football games on Saturdays at various playgrounds throughout the City. Because of the popularity of this program and the fact that recreation leaders will be travelling with their teams, certain playgrounds will be closed on Saturdays when teams are playing away from home.

The following is a complete schedule as to the days and times certain playgrounds will be closed and without supervision due to the city-wide flag football program:

November 21

Westlake School, 10-noon, 2-4 p.m., 12-2 p.m.

Informal Procedure in Selection

An informal procedure will be followed in selecting a successor to Dixon Arnett on the Redwood City Council, Mayor Robert H. Bury indicated Monday.

Arnett, assemblyman-elect from the county's Twenty-sixth Assembly District, will be leaving the council to begin his state legislative duties January 1.

Although not setting up any established procedure, the mayor agreed with a suggestion of councilwoman Mary Henderson that names of those proposed in writing should be processed through the city clerk's office for review by all council members.

In addition to Juan Hernandez, those who have expressed interest in council appointments are James Williams, a member of the city planning commission and unsuccessful council candidate last April, and Louis Masarie, a general contractor and member of the city's architectural review board.

Film Taken From Home

A reported 25 reels of stag-type movie film, numerous undergarments, a projector and a .38 caliber revolver were taken in a burglary of the Belmont home of the owner of San Mateo's Easy Street bar, according to Belmont police.

Total value of the loss was estimated at $260, police reported. The home was that of Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. Maita, 2619 Ciprian Boulevard.

The burglary occurred around November 8 or 9, police were told, while the Maitas were on vacation in Hawaii. It was reported this Saturday.

Entry to the house was through an unlocked garage door and then by breaking through a locked door to a lower room, police found.

Heavy Safe Rolled Away

A safe containing an immediately undetermined number of blank money orders and amount of cash was stolen Monday night from the Redwood City Western Union office, 708 Winslow Street.

Policeman George Yaco said the old-type heavy steel safe, three feet high and two feet square, was rolled out the back door, down an alley to Marshall Street and placed in a vehicle.

The officer said a rear window covered with wire mesh was forced open and the rear door then opened from the inside.
